©CLE425642
JUN 13 1918

New Songs

"I've a Girl of my Own in U. S. A."

LYRIC BY K. O'BRIEN.

MUSIC BY
G. W. ASHLEY.

FAIRCHILD MUSIC COMPANY
203 BROADWAY NEW YORK

M1646
.A

"I've a Girl of My Own in U. S. A."

K. O'BRIEN G. W. ASHLEY

Marcia

ff

Now Pri-vate Jim my Kel-ly was a sol-dier of the line, So he sailed off to France a-mong the Yes, far a-cross the o-cean lives my own sweet Melba May, As wholesome as the breath from o'er the first. And as he strolled the streets of Ha-vre or Bou-logne, His plains. With her clear, sun-kissed eyes and her arch, win-ning way A heart was a thumping fit to burst. For some gay Mam-selle would round my heart she's fastened wel-come chains. The daughters of France may

mf

Copyright MCMXVIII by Katherine O'Brien make the charming eye, And cry, "Hel-lo, Sam-mee, w'y so triste, mon cher? But Jim - my have beauty and grace, But yet to my own I will faith-ful be Nor will I felt he had to give her the go by, For as he sailed from home, his ma's words were: _____

be fooled by a fair for-eign face, while I still can hear my mother say to me: _____

rit.

ff

CHORUS

"Jim my, have a care of them bold French las-sies! O they sure have a teas-ing squeez-ing way!" _____ So he said, "Y-vonne,* be-gone skid-doo g'-wan I've a girl of my own in U. S. A.! _____ A! _____

ff

ff

*Note: pronounced Ee-Vonn

4541/3