JUL 27 1918
JUL 27 1918 ©CLE428917

In the Dawning of the Morning when the Boys come Marching Home

Arranged by Rudolf Thaler

Words & Music by Joseph Atkins

Moderato

Will you help to bring them marching home to us On that great big glo-rious
We can hear the pum-ret call round the world Sounding Ar-ma-ged-don's day! When the crimes all sing and the mar-ch-ing bu-gles ring and their tray — Bring moon-thin shakes and the earth be-neath us quakes, As its sway

way

Col-umns swing and sway, and sway, Keep the home fires burn-ing and the sch-ools break a-way, a-way, And our sons are girt a-bout to

sway
way

way
ray

hearts a-ry-earn, For the boys who're gone a-way, a-way, And pray and pray they'll come meet the fee, Joy and Me-gry in as-ray, as-ray, So pray and pray let the

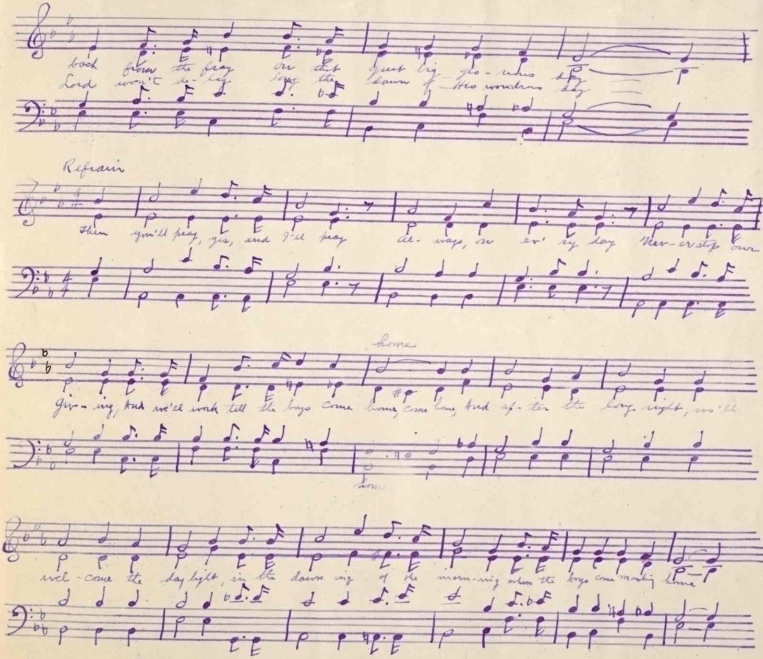
way
ray

M1646
.A



back from the fray on that great big glorious day Lord won't de-lay long the dawn of His wondrous day

Refrain

Then you'll pray, yes, and I'll pray al-ways, on ev'ry day Never stop our giv-ing, And we'll work till the boys come home, come home, And af-ter the long night, we'll

Home

home

wel-come the day light, in the dawn ing of the morn-ing when the boys come marching home

46011