Jane Van Etten Andrews
847 Forest Avenue
Evanston, - Illinois

NOV -5 1917

Our Flag - Our Country

Words and music by Jane Van Etten Andrews

©CLE413095

Marcia

Marcia

bugle

(drum) p

f

Poco rit

Sf

A tempo

Our flag, Our Com-try, To-day we fight for thee - On Our great Re-pub-lic Au-to-cra-cy will crush, And Stars, stripes and a-zure-, There is no dark-ness there - Our

A tempo

mf

land and on wa-ter In air, and in the sea - nev-er for Shame shall the great-est na-tion blush - flag stands for free-dom And all that's good and fair -

M1646
.A

p

For the our fore-fa- thers fought and bled and died;
'Tis not for pow-er or glo- ry that we war;
Stars that will light en the dark-ness of the lands;

cresc.

For the our fa-thers stood each one side by side;
It is for free-dom that's great - er by far-Stripes that gleam red-dy and buds us strong in bands;

cresc.

f poco rall

For the our na-tion to vic- to-ry will go- For For us and o-thers we'll break a ty- rant's sway- Who Blue of a Heav-en that cov- ers all the world- The

f

poco rall

ff

right is might to con-quer all, And we will con-quer our foe!
Lies in black-ness of the night, Our stars will show him the day!
Flag that stands for li- ber- ty, Shall e- ver be un- furled!

ff

ART BRAND No.4