©CLE414012
NOV 24 1917

"Jimsie Boy."

Lyrics & Music
by Allen H. Behr.
Yonkers, N.Y.

Tempo di Marcia.

ff

Voice.

My Jim-sie boy has en-listed My Jim-sie boy's gone a-way He's gone to sea to Fight-ing was ne'er Jim's Ambition Home meant the whole world to him But glad was his heart to

mf

see the sea and the Kaiser too may be Tho' he is naught but a seaman it do his part He was ready at the start On his dear manly face was a sweet smile, When he won't take you long to see He surely is a real man and he's gone to bring the Kaiser back to left me for the sea And I know 'twon't be but a short while till he's steaming up the river back to

M1646
.B

NOV 24 1917

Start new line

Chos.

me. Bells will ring - voices | sing — When my | Jim-sie boy comes back to | me. All will | me.

Chorus.

dance — as home from | France my | hero comes across the | sea. When he | lands upon the shore, to me he'll | be a com-mo-dore and from | every house and door they'll shout Hurrah! And |

ff

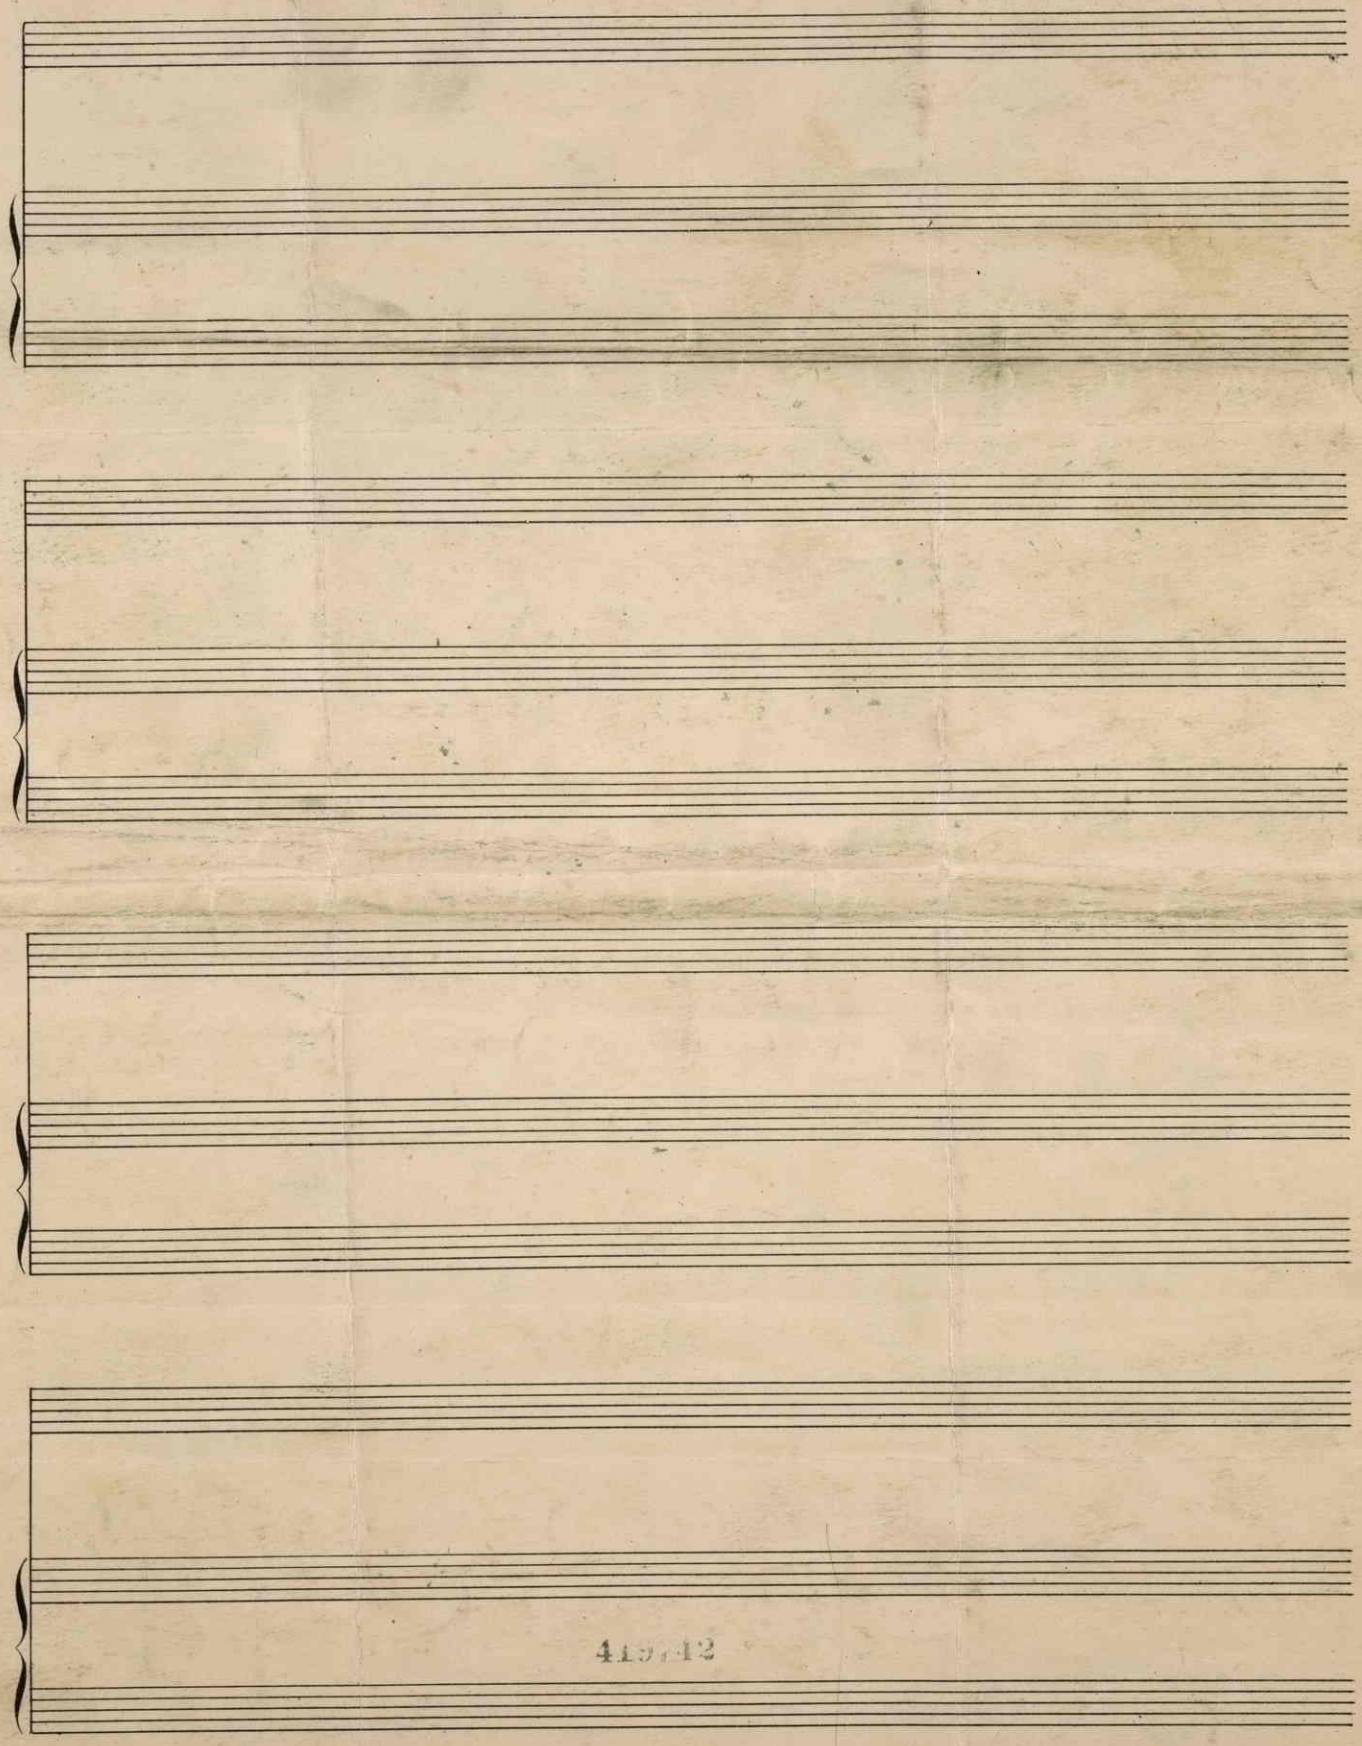
ff

when we win you'll all claim | him — But he'll | still just be my Jim-sie | Jim.

ritard

Rit.

Chorus



419,42

GSNY No.9