"I wonder where your Girl and my Girl are tonight"

by Barton & Lyman

AUG 10 1918

Intro.

Slow (with feeling)

Voice.

Jim and Jack were pals, They both loved two Girls, And to France they sailed a-way, In the trench one night, just before the fight, I heard Jim to Jack say, I have got the blues, From home I've had no news, and my heart don't feel light, I

Chorus

won-der, where your Girl and my Girl are to-night, I won-der, if they're hap-py, and where the lights are shi-ning bright, I won-der, if they're lone-some, while we're fig-ting for the cause that's or do-ing things that arent

right, I won-der where your Girl and my Girl are to-night. —
