APR 17 1918
©CLE422996

RED WHITE AND BLUE

Words by STEPHEN FAY

Music by ARTHUR BERGH

A SONG OF THE FLAG

BOSTON
C.C.Birchard & Co.

M1646
.B

RED, WHITE AND BLUE

Words by STEPHEN FAY

Music by ARTHUR BERGH

Tempo di Marcia

PIANO

f mf

1. Flags fly-ing ev-'ry-where, Borne on the morn-ing air, Col-ors that
2. Far in a strick-en land, There shall our ban-ner stand, Sym-bol of

mf

stir ev-'ry heart that beats true, Flags that up-hold the right, all we are fight-ing to save. There shall it proud-ly fly,

Em-blems of hon-or bright, Flags that lead us straight on to vic-to-ry! Hur-
Sign of a purpose high, Ev-'ry star shall guide us to vic-to-ry! Hur-

Copyright, 1918, by C. C. Birchard & Company International Copyright Secured

f rah! for them, one and all, Fly - ing at Freedom's call, Bind - ing as rah! then, and for-ward all! Strike! till their stan-dards fall! Per - ish the f broth - ers, the old and the new. But still let the loud-est cheer foe that would na-tions en - slave! And dai - ly the pledge re - new:
Ring for those col-ors dear: Red and white and blue!
Hearts must be strong and true, While our col - ors wave!
CHORUS
f Red, white and blue! The col-ors for me and for f

you! In France they fly and by and by They'll be in Ger-man-y too! Red, white and blue!

There's a mes-sage in ev-er-y hue: They call us to fight For Free-dom and Right, With the Red and White and Blue!

sfz

450154