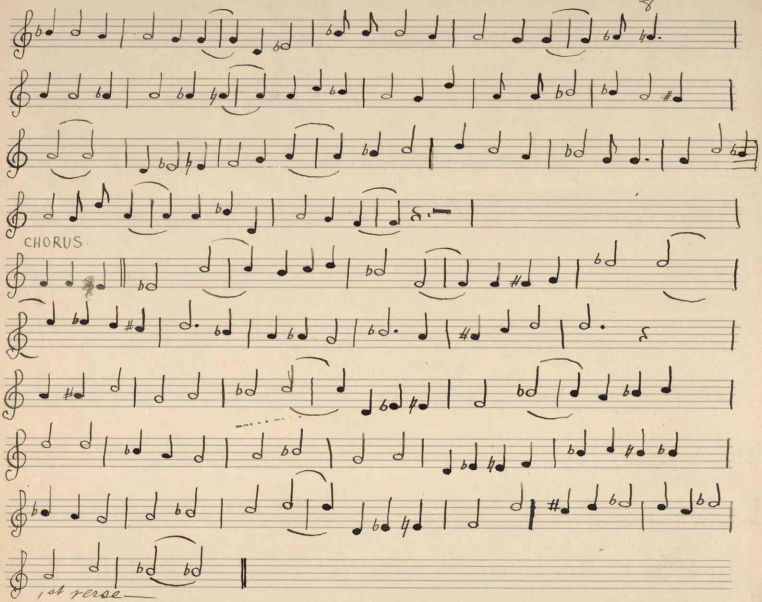
"Old Glory's Calling"

Words + Melody By
Harold Vincent Bogart

VERSE



Sweetheart you're heard the news of war. and you're never seemed so sad before. Don't let me brake your heart. ~~Ar~~ You know I love "Old Glory" and that's why we must part. Don't say you won't forgive me dear for leaving you this way. ~~&~~ May God protect and love you. Is all my heart can say.

Good bye, I'm going. "Old Glory's calling. and I am ready to do or die. Comrades are marching. brave men are falling. That "Old Glory" long wave high. Now don't be yearning. for my returning. Think of our Red White and Blue.
And now I say good bye to thee. Shoud I ne'r return to you. You will forgive me for the sake of our Flag Old Glory.

2nd verse

I take your heart away with me. far ~~oer~~ over the sea of memory. yes some though I with comrades lie. will meet again ~~[illegible]~~ day-in a soldier's bye and bye.
And now my dear be brave and true I hear the bugle call.
That's means I must be going
Good bye Good Luck that's all.
