©CLE 416654
JAN 10 1918

Good-bye My Honey I'm Gone

Words & Music by James Reese Europe, Noble Sissle & Eubie Blake

Music Division
Reserve Storage

Marcia

mp

Now look here hon-ey don't you cry, Cause I've I'll miss you hon-ey all the while and you got on dese soldier's clothes, ___ You soon will miss me, kiss me, so long will miss me too, I know, ___ You will be look-ing, long-ing, so will hon; I hate to grieve you, but I must leave you Oh how I hate to I; Now I must hur-ry, Hon please don't wor-ry. I'll come back ba-by say good — bye, I love you, good-ness knows The bu-gles blow-in' bye and bye, See how I hate to go But du-ty first dear

I must be go-in', ___ I'll come back when vic-ry is won. ___
Don't think the worst dear, ___ Oh send me a-way with a smile ___

Chorus

I've got to go ___ Babe, it's time I was gone, I've got to go ___ Babe, must hurry a-long ___ I'm going to take my chance with the boys a-cross the sea, And fight to help us win our right to lib-er-ty I want to know, ___ Babe, that I've done my bit ___ I want to show, ___ babe, that I've got the grit, 'Cause ev'-ry-bod-y's go-ing to do or die ev'-ry-bod-y's go-ing, So am I; And it's good bye my honey I'm gone, gone, Good bye my hon-ey I'm gone ___ I've got to gone ___

Copyright MCMXVIII by Jos. W. Stern & Co N Y
British, English Spanish Copyright secured

"I could not love thee, dear, so much Lord I not know more."
(original is in M1622 B)
M1696.B [BLAKE, EUBIE]