©CLE438826
DEC 18 1918

WE ARE COMING, BROTHERS, COMING

WORDS BY PHILIP H. ROCKEFELLER

MUSIC BY EDNA A. MAC ARTHUR

PUBLISHED BY
EDNA A. MAC ARTHUR
32 MORNINGSIDE AVE, NEW YORK

M1646
.M

We Are Coming, Brothers, Coming.

Words by PHILIP H ROCKEFELLER

Music by
EDNA A. MAC ARTHUR

Moderato

f

𝄋 Solo ad lib

For free-doms sword had long been sheated in this land of lib - er -
At last there came the cry for help from a far a - cross the Brave Persh - ing and his ar - my of no - ble free - men staunch and p

ty. Our glo - rious flag the Stars and Stripes proud-ly waved from sea to sea. That cry could not be made in vain to this land of lib - er - true. On French soil soon were land - ed with the Red, the White, the sea. Our peo - ple did not care for war, they on - ly wished for ty. And free-dom's sword was quick - ly drawn and placed in worth - y Blue. And mil - lions more are mus - ter - ing to sail a - cross the peace; When sud-den-ly a war cloud rose off in the dis-tant East.

Copyright MCMXVIII by Edna A. Mac Arthur 32 Morningside Ave. N.Y. City.

hands; It's on-ly foe the ty-rant now was tortur-ing oth-er lands.
sea; To help to down the war-mad Hun and make the whole world free.

Refrain

We are com-ing, broth-ers, com-ing from our home be-yond the sea, With the p–f sword and flag of free-dom, from the land of lib-er-ty, And we will nev-er fail you; we will bat-tle at your side: We are com-ing, broth-ers, com-ing bring-ing all our strength and pride. We are pride.

1 2

D.S. al ℵ Fine.

Eureka Music Press N.Y.

445126