©CLE436566 OCT 31 1918

THE KAISER'S GOAT.

TIM LAVERTY

pseud

Strict Rhythm.

Do not repeat between verses.

1 Now we've
2 Let him
3 He's so
4 But to got the Kai- ser's goat; Sure, he ain't no load to stick a- round a- while, Dop- ing out his sick- ly weak he does- n't sigh; And t to butt he does- n't die would still still worse; Where he'll go to "Good- night" tote; For he's got s so thin He's just bones and skin, O-ver smile; He has ceased to blow, For he knows we know That his dry; When we fin- ish him Pick- ins will be slim, He'll be nurse!" He'll be with the Huns, The old sons- o'- guns, And to him we do not gloat; O- ver him we do not heart is full of bile; That his heart is full of glad to go and die; He'll be glad to go and that he's much a- verse; And to that he's much agloat, O- ver him we do not gloat For he's bile That his heart is full of bile He has die He'll be glad to go and die. When we verse. And to that he's much a- verse. He'll be got so thin He said bones and skin O- ver him we do not ceased to blow For he knows we know That his heart is full of fin--isl him Pick-ins will be slim He'll be glad to go and with the Huns The old sons- o- guns, And to that he's much a-

A1646

1.2.3.
4.
Gloat.
bile.
die.
Verse.
D.S.

442641