"The Yankee is on the sentry"

Song.

Words and music by William Marsoun.

Introduction: f

Song

fly our - mot-her now time is here and earth is turn - ing round in her dai - ly re - vo - lu - tion and the yanke - es buggy - gle sounds, sounds to arm his po - pu - la - tion: come on sec - ret goal, where she is bound, is round in the pla - nets gents and take the arms to pro - tect the world from the wanton - e - vo - lu - tion; then a na - tions fate in a fi - red mould de - vos - ta - tion! show the foe that nat - tions have fi - red nights is to guard the rights of earthly po - pu - la - tion; And and down own - and hold their own, free po - pu - la - tion; And so it came that Yan - kee is on the guard, on the guard, Yan - kees came, the Yan - kees brave gen - trys guard, gentrys guard

III And Yankees go to fight in France for France save her gallant population from a brutal foe that is in France, in France, last stage of his own degeneration; so the rest of ~~world~~ gentle humane world shall keep and hold her own rights of nations.

And the Yankees go, the Yankees brave gentry guard Yankees his humane sentry, to fight for rights and force regards, for the earthey population gentry.
