©CLE415045
JAN -2 1918

Rise Young America

music by Paul Martin jr.

M1646
.M

To The Rev. John J. Donlon, Ph.D.
Pres. Catholic Summer School of America

Rise Young America

Words by MARY G. MANAHAN

Music by PAUL MARTIN, Jr.

O youth a - rise and face the morn - ing
Lift up thy voice and praise the Glor - ious light, Lift up thine eyes and view the morn - ing sun.

One, Who keeps thee safe thro' dan - gers of the night.

Gird up thy loins, make shield and buck - ler bright, Bat - tle a - Un - sheath thy sword, al - read - y for the fight, And thus waits thee, battle a - waits thee; Ere the day

pre - pared, and thus pre - pared, The fight is done, ere the day is done.

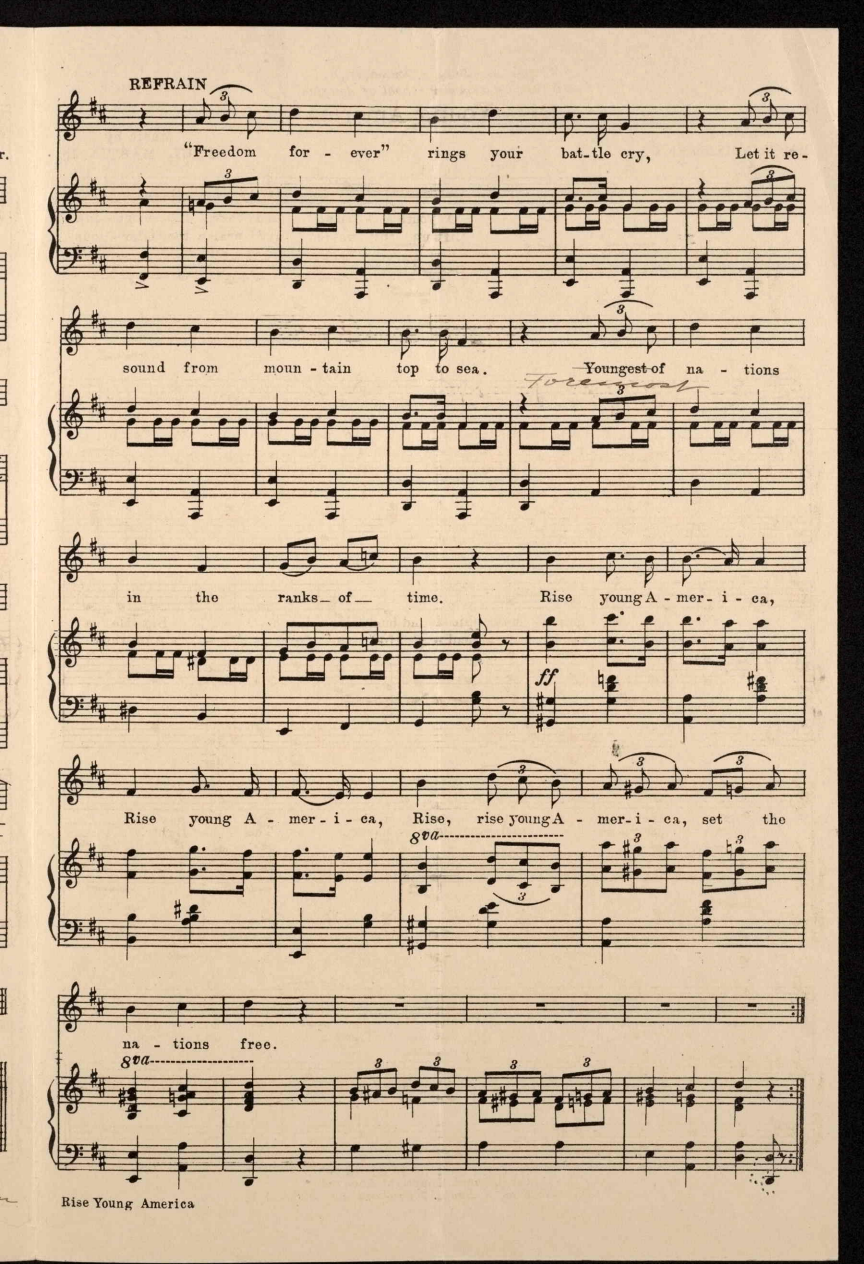
is won, the fight is won.

Copyright 1917 by P. Martin, Jr.
International Copyright Secured.
Published by A. Levy, 57 Graham Ave., B'k'yn, N.Y.

Mary G. Manahan



REFRAIN
"Freedom for - ever" rings your bat-tle cry, Let it resound from moun - tain top to sea. Youngest of na - tions in the ranks of time. Rise young A - mer - i - ca, ff
Rise young A - mer - i - ca, Rise, rise young A - mer - i - ca, set the 8va
na - tions free.
8va

423 181