©CLE443340
MAR 15 1919

When The Khaki Lad Comes Home

March Song

WORDS BY Annie M.L. Hawes
MUSIC BY
Willard Mayberry

DATE OF PUBLICATION
FEB 28 1919

PUBLISHED BY CRESSEY & ALLEN,
PORTLAND, MAINE

M1626
.M

Dedicated to the Boys in Khaki

When the Khaki Lad Comes Home

March Song

Words by ANNIE M. L. HAWES

Music by WILLARD MAYBERRY

PIANO

ff

1. When comes the big ship
2. On shell - torn hill in
3. But now he comes! O

mf

bring-ing in The boys in Kha - ki clad,
No Man's Land, Where dead un - bur - ied lie, great ship haste! We watch by tower and town,

When up and down all thro' the town The
With joy - ous breath he flout - ed death, And O glad bells ring while prince and king Their cres - cen - do

Copyright, 1919, by Annie M. L. Hawes folks with joy go mad, Up - on the baf - fled death went by, His feet have use - less crowns lay down. O great ship

f mf

great ship's crowd-ed deck There's on - ly one I trod - den ghast-ly ways Where com - rades blood left haste! We wait for him, The na - tion's longed for see, In Kha - ki clad, the lit - tle lad stain, The daunt - less lad in Kha-ki clad guest, The gal - lant lad in Kha-ki clad

f mf

Who won the war for me.
Knows well the ghost - like plain.
His war cross on his breast.

1 & 2. Call
3. Call

ff ff

CHORUS
Con Spirito

out, great bells, from shore to shore, Call out, great bells, from shore to shore, Call out a - cross the foam; And bid the out a cross the foam; Oh, greet the lad in Kha - ki clad; O bid the lad in Kha - ki clad; And bid him

1st & 2nd V. | Last Verse.

lad come home.
wel - come home.

453630