©CLE433670 OCT 21 1918

Hark to the Tread of a Nation (Hymn of America)

Music by Raymond Moore

[pseud. of Arthur Hadley]

Andante Moderato

Voice

Andante Moderato

A-Each

meri-ca Our glorious land of Freedom and Pro-gres-sion: Thy heart beats high as they march by To de-fend our old Tra-di-tion, That

Clarion call now summons all To arm a-gainst Op-pres-sion Let Liberty may ne-ver die, God speed men in their mis-sion Their

Foemen heed the Ea-gles breed For Liber-ty we fight; Free Cause is just, They will not fail Their victo-ry is sure, To

M1646
.M

Peerless we the world shall see, How we de-fend the Right.
Fight that Free-dom shall prevail, And the whole world made se-cure.

Refrain

Maestoso Marcato

Hark! to the tread of a Na-tion Every throat joins in acclama-tion That we're

Maestoso Marcato

keeping up the repu-ta-tion of the old Red white and Blue

Tramp! tramp! tramp, don't you hear them as they march to fight over Sea; They Tramp, tramp, tramp wont you cheer them, They're fighting to keep us free.

441202

No. 3