JUN 24 1918 ©CLE 428184

Cheer Up! A Brighter Day is Dawning

Price: 25c.

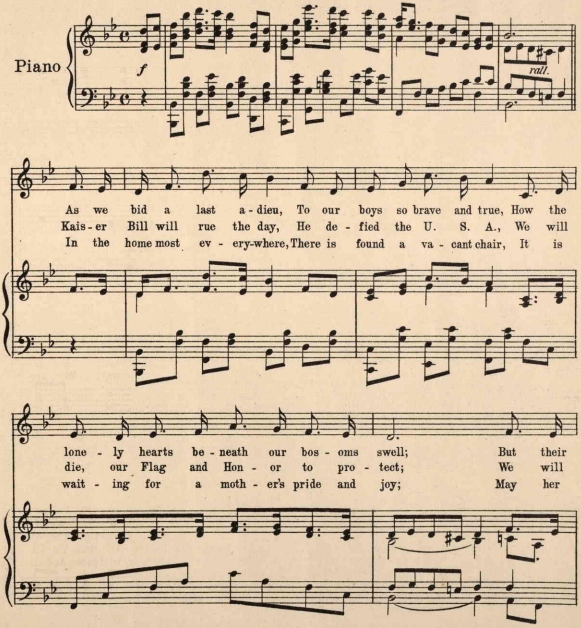
Words and Music by
JAMES H. MOUNT

Published by
JAMES H. MOUNT
JAMESBURG, N. J. P. O. BOX 354

M1646
.M

Cheer Up! A Brighter Day Is Dawning

JAMES H. MOUNT
arr. by Paul Ambrose.



Copyright MCMXVIII by James H. Mount, Jamesburg, N.J.

du - ty bids them go, To de - feat the dead - ly foe, And pro - fight on land and sea, Un - til na - tions all a - gree, And his wish be not in vain, For his safe re - turn a - gain, To the tect the home and friends they love so well. On the art - ful terms of Peace we will re - ject. Though in home of moth - er's darl - ing sol - dier boy. As they bat - tle fields of France, They will brave - ly take the chance, To de - bat - tle we may fall, We will heed our Coun - try's call, To de - bat - tle night and day, In the trench - es far a - way, We are feat the blood - y Kais-er and his crew; For our hon - or they will fight, They will feat the dead - ly foe Au - toc - ra - cy; We will fight the bru - tal Hun, Un - til pray - ing for the hap - py day to come; When this cru - el war will cease, And all bat - tle for the right, And for - ev - er to our coun - try will be true.

vic - to - ry is won, And the world is safe for true De - moc - ra - cy.
na - tions are at Peace, And they sail a - way to lov - ing friends and home.

Chorus

Then cheer up! a bright - er day is dawn - ing, For

p

un - i - ver - sal peace is near at hand; Soon all na - tions will a - gree, And at peace for - ev - er be Liv - ing hap - py in their own be - lov - ed land.

Eureka Press, N. Y.

434555