1. NATHANIEL SLOSSON 1, (2) (prob. s. of a Nath. ? fr. Eng.—of Yeoman des.) b. about 1696; bought land at Captain's Plain, Norwalk, Conn., Feb. 24, 1720-21; at Kent, Norwalk, March 1, 1720-21; in each deed described as "of Deerfield, Mass." He m. Margaret, b about 1700, dau. of William Belden of Norwalk; "of Norwalk," Nov. 16, 1721, when Samuel Belden gave him a deed of all of said Belden's right in the undivided lands in Norwalk, "in consideration of the love and good will which I have and do bear toward my loving cousin, Nathaniel Slawson of said Norwalk." The value of this gift may be indicated by the fact that eighteen days later, to wit, Dec. 4, 1721, he was rated at £115, in the commonage of Norwalk.

He sold land, with two dwelling-houses, at Pimpewaug, Wilton, for £600, March 31, 1730. The members of the ch at Wilton, at the ordination of Rev. William Gaylord, Feb. 13, 1732-3.

Bought of Ebenezer Bishop, of Stamford, Conn., Nov. 1, 1738, "one right, Part, Share or Allotment in the Township of Kent, lately sold by ye government, which is in said colony of Connecticut, for which he paid £246 10s., and covenanted that he would, "by himself or his agent, within the space of one year and four months next after the date hereof, enter upon the said premises, build and finish an house thereon, not less than eighteen feet square and seven feet stud, and subdue, clear and fence six acres of said land, and continue thereon for the space of three successive years, commencing after the said one year and four months, unless pre-
