

	PAGE.
Captain Edwards' account of his voyage in the Pandora in search of the Bounty,	119
Captain Mayhew Folger's letter to the Lords of the Admiralty, giving an account of the settlement on Pitcairn's Island,	126
Sir George Stainé's letter on the same subject,	127
Pitcairn's Island, discovery of,	135
Letter from captain Folger to the author,	137
Particulars of captain Folger's landing on Pitcairn's Island,	139

CHAPTER VI.

Reflections on the history of the Bounty, and settlement on Pitcairn's Island,	145
---	-----

CHAPTER VII.

Passage from Timor to Bencoolen—Christmas Island—Governor of Padang,	152
Pulo Bay—Bencoolen Reeds—Rat-Island-basin, description of,	154
Island of Sumatra,	156
Batavia, arrival at, and description of the city,	157
Mosques of the Malays,	160
A tom-tom, described,	161

CHAPTER VIII.

Passage from Batavia through the Straits of Billiton,	162
Borneo Island—Navigation on its coast—Mountains and productions,	163
Beach-to-mar, or Suwaloo,	164
Philippine Islands,	165
City of Manilla—its inhabitants,	166
Remarks on a passage through the Sooloo Sea,	167
Balambangan—Inhabitants—Monkeys—Harbour—Bangua Peak—Balabac,	168
Cagayan-Sooloo—Towee-Towee,	169

CHAPTER IX.

Description of the island and town of Sooloo,	171
Going on shore at Sooloo, by the assistance of an old Moor, who was a subah-dar in the Sultan's guard, with the circumstances attending the enterprize,	175
The commodore and officers invited by the sultan to go on shore,	178
The Sultan's Seraglio,	179
Alexander Dalrymple Esq, some mention of,	181
A voyage to Sooloo might be profitable,	182

CHAPTER X.

Passage from Sooloo through the sea of Celebes,	183
Gilolo—Mortay—Waygo,	184
Second visit to the Pelew Islands,	186
Some further remarks on the inhabitants—Abba Thulle—Arra Kooker—Raa Kook,	187
Description of their canoes—tarra-root—swaloo,	191
Passage from Pelew to Canton,	195

CHAPTER XI.

Difficulty between captain Stewart of the ship Eliza and the Chinese government,	196
Settlement with the English government for my two years services,	197
Sailed from Canton in the Eliza, for Ostend,	ib.
Treachery of the Malays,	198
Arrival at the Isle of France,	199
Remarks upon the inhabitants, and the effects produced by the revolution in France,	200
Reflections upon privateering,	203
Number of inhabitants in the Isle of France,	205
Island of Bourbon, description of,	207

CHAPTER XII.

Passage from the Isle of France to Bombay—Hurricane,	208
Mahe Island—Seychelles bank,	209