Piano

JAN 15 1918
©CLE 418121

"A Soldiers Dream Of Mother" (Waltz Lullaby)

Voice

Tempo di Valse,

Some-where in France a Boy is think-ing think-ing of Moth-er Moth-er a let-ters here for all with love from the Boy who think-ing of home think-ing how brav-e-ly she said Good-bye He ans-wered the call say-ing dear Moth-er be brave for my sake I'm

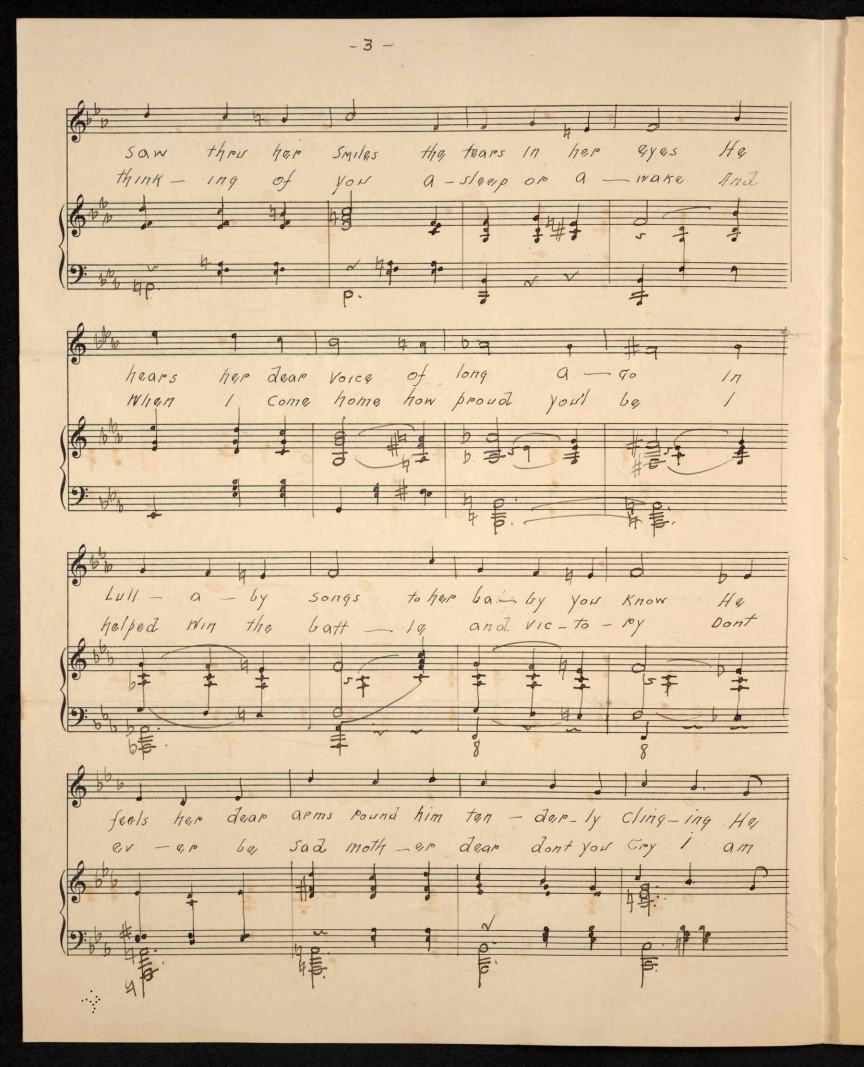
Words & Music By Laurie Gregory Nicholson

H1646
Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 10 – 12 lines.



Saw thru her Smiles the tears in her eyes He think - ing of you a - sleep or a - wake And hears her dear voice of long a - go In When I come home how proud you'll be I Lull - a - by songs to her ba - by you know He helped win the batt - le and vic - to - ry Dont feels her dear arms round him ten - der - ly cling - ing He ev - er be sad moth - er dear dont you cry I am dreams of his ba-by days dre-ams she is singing think-ing of you and your sw-eet lull-a-bye

Ri

Chor.

Dar-ling lit-tle boy of mine

p-f

Come to me and rest

Cud-dle close and lay your head

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 10-12 lines.

here on moth — ers breast

We will play were on a boat rock — ing to and fro rock — ing sail — ing down — ie to

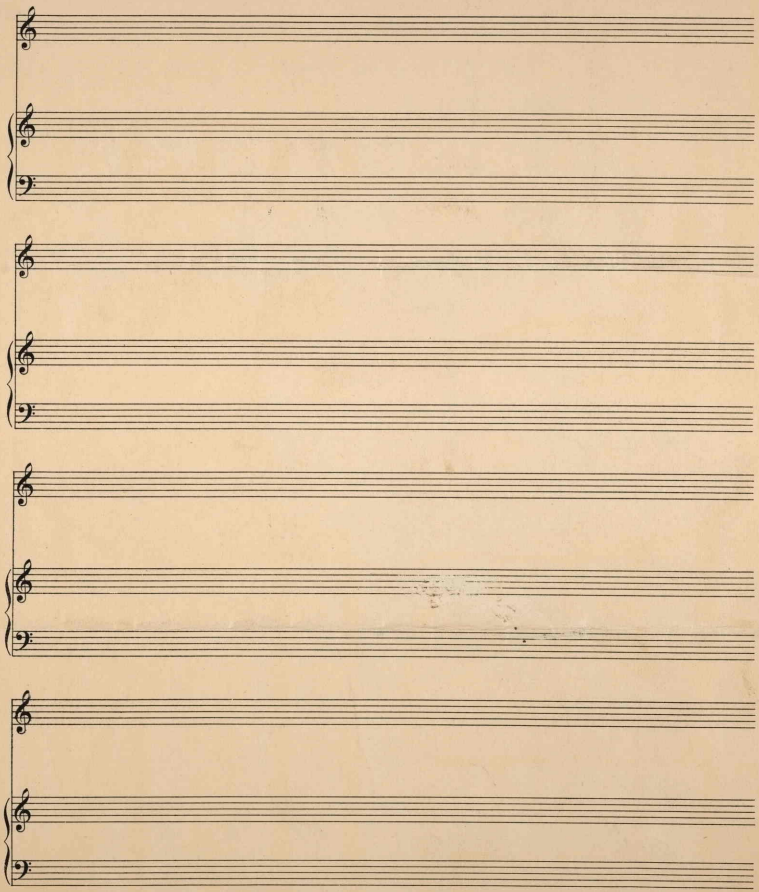
Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 10 – 12 lines.



423363