Romance—"MY HOME, MY COUNTRY"

Composed and arr. by George Nolton.

CHORUS. Orch. Horns. Harp. (Altos)

Dear brother from across the sea This message I would bring to you.- Tho birthplace yours be German--y To Un--cle Sam be true. (Orch.)

I warn, to Un-cle Sam be true. (Orch.) (Tenors) If mem--'ries fill your heart with grief For friends who fell in bat-tle,--'Twas Kai----ser Wil--helm who sure deceived, Who lured them to death, damn his rat-tle.— To death he lured them by de-ceit. (Orch.) (Clar.Cad.) (Harp.) (Baritone.) I love you still; you must understand, My heart for you, I give you my hand. We fought to save our Country; Both your home and my home, our land. We fought to save our home, our land. (Orch.) (Sopr.) I'll sing one song, a right loy--al song, Of home and country mine, Dear pal you must know, My hope then will grow, We'll friends be thru all fu--ture time; We'll friends be thru all future time. (Orch.) Maestoso My home! that's the place I call my country; Ready to de-

-fend her name I stand; U----ni--ted States of A--mer--i-ca for me, I know no bet-ter land. 'Twas you that sailed to taste of our real lib-er-ty, Yes, and know our ea--gle big and strong. Oh Stars and Stripes! Old Glo-ry! To you I'll for--ev----er be---long.-----
