©CLE 424712 R.
APR 25 1918

Words & music by
A. F. Paganucci
1st musician/
naval training station Newport
R.I.

Our Lads across the sea

MARCH & TWO STEP.

Our boys are sailing over the land across the sea they are on their way to Berlin to down au-to-cra-cy. With general Per-shing at the head, they'll sure-ly do and dare, so keep your eyes on the Yan-kee lads while they're fighting o-ver there. (chor.) With old glo-ry wa-ving proud-ly on that land across the sea, our boys are shou-ting loud-ly we fight for li-ber-ly, that e-very land and every soul may be for-ever free. When at the test they'll do their best our lads ac-cross the sea

2 ending

best our lads ac cross the sea

I Verse Those boys have left their land of peace and liberty and are fighting for the other lands, for world democracy. So cheer them and back them up, and help them you and me to go and do their glorious share, to make the whole world free.

(chours) With old glory waving proudly, ecc, ecc.

M1646
.P

CS NY No. 3

GS NY No. 3

430750