"THE GALLANT 91ST".

W. A. Hartlett. Juan Navarro.

They are coo-ing, Hear the Drumming, See Old Glor-y burst To view in splen-dor, A-midst those who'd de-fend her, The Gallant Nine-ty First. They are now in view, That noble crew, Who defeat-ed Hell's ac-cursed; See their martial ar-ray, No laggards they, The Gallant Nine-ty First. (CHORUS) Followers of Old Glor-y,

Shar-ers of her stor-y, Men who for lib-er-ty thirst;

May it ever en-fold you, And pos-ter-i-ty be-hold you, As the Gal-lant Nine-ty First.

Now they are abreast,
Sons of the West,
Heroes who victory nursed
Thru days of gloom,
And the cannon's boom,
The Gallant 91st.
Now they're passing,
Note their dashing
Spirit which was immersed
In battle's fierce test,
And over whose crest
Stormed the Gallant 91st.
