AUG 8 1918

©CIE455998

Democracy Democracy That's What We're Fighting For

By

EDWARD P. POWERS

M1646
.P

PUBLISHED BY Delmar Music Co.
CHICAGO

Democracy Democracy
That's What We're Fighting For

EDWARD P. POWERS

Marcia

f

Now there's been a great big question put Now Un-cle Sammy raised an ar my of a

VAMP

up to Ger-ma-ny, But she has lowered her head in shame, for she would not a-gree.
mil-lion men or more To send o-ver to stricken France whose men are sick and sore; Now

Now what are you fight-ing for? Why did you start the war? Since Un-cle Sam got that this war is o-ver, Bill will re-al-ize his mis-take To find that Un-cle

Copyright MCMXIX by Edward P. Powers.

in the fray, He gave his an - swer right a - way, So this is what he's fighting for Sam - my has al - ways been wide a - wake Now we have sent a let - ter

From here after Verse 1 jump to Chorus

To Chorus

to the na - tions now at war, And in it is the answer just what we're fighting for.

Jump to Cho. after V I.

CHORUS mf-f

De - mo - cra - cy, De - mo - cra - cy, that's what we're fighting for; De - mo - cra - cy, De -

mf-f mo - cra - cy, that's why we're in this war. Now in this land of lib - er - ty, Made of men like you and me, For to stand by De - mo - cra - cy. De cy.

467282