©CLE428479
JUL -3 1918

When The Boys Come Marching Home

by Louis J. Price

Who said we're un-pre-pared? There's noth-ing we have-n't dared! We're They'll know the Yanks can fight, And we'll teach them wrong from right, The rea-dy to fight with all our might For this land of Li-ber—sea'll-be free for you and me, In this world of Li-ber—

ty;— We've got the boys and guns, We've got the ty;— You'll see the foe will run, And when our

Copyright 1918 by Louis J. Price

M1646
.P

ships and bombs, And, we'll come march-ing —
du-ty's done, The boys in blue, will re —

home a-gain With the freedom of the world.
turn to you, For they'll soon come marching home.

Chorus

And when the boys come marching home — Back to the

p-f

Good old U. S. A. — When the boys come marching home — It will be a hol-i-day — When the boys come march-ing home — From the vic-tries they have won — We will give three cheers for the no-ble vol-un-teers, When the boys come

march-ing home — And when the home-

GIBSON No. 2

433512