©CLE448773

APR 21 1919

The Battle of Paris

words and Music by

Edmund J. Porray

M1646
.P

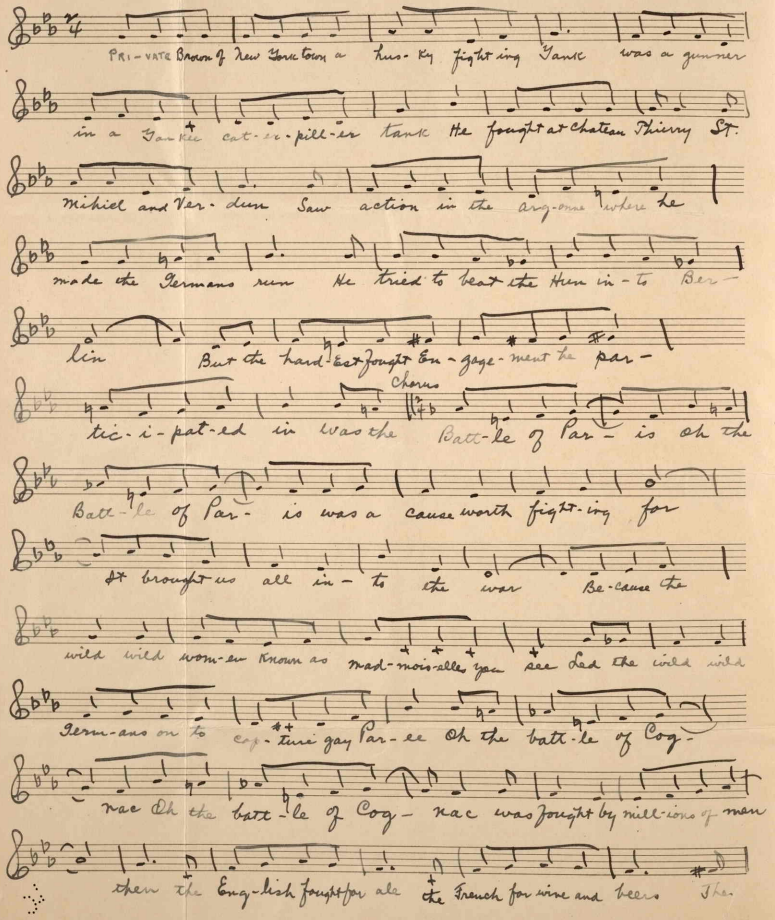
Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 4—12 lines.

~~Copyrighted by~~
~~Carl Fischer, U.S.~~
~~New York~~

O.K.
Accepted by
J. P. Frazee
1st Lt Ing U.S.A.

"The Battle of Paris"

Words and Music by
Edmund J Porray



PRI-VATE Brown of New York town a hus-ky fight-ing Yank was a gunner in a Yankee cat-er-pill-er tank He fought at Chateau Thierry St.
Mihiel and Ver-dun Saw action in the arg-onne where he made the Germans run He tried to beat the Hun in-to Berlin But the hard-est fought En-gage-ment he partic-i-pat-ed in was the Chorus Batt-le of Par-is Oh the Batt-le of Par-is was a cause worth fight-ing for It brought us all in-to the war Be-cause the wild wild wom-en known as mad-mois-elles you see Led the wild wild Germ-ans on to cap-ture gay Par-ee Oh the batt-le of Cognac Oh the batt-le of Cog-nac was fought by mill-ions of men then the Eng-lish fought for ale the French for wine and beers The

Yan-kee dough-boy sim-ply fought for Germ-an souv-en-iers

How I'd like to re-main to fight the Batt-le of Par- is a-gain.

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 4—12 lines.

~~Copyright by~~
~~CHAS. K. HARRIS,~~
~~New York~~

458014