©CLE419642 R
APR -8 1918

TO FIGHT FOR UNCLE SAM.

by H.H. PUGGSLEY

M1646
.P

ART BRAND No.2

PIANO { TO FIGHT FOR UNCLE SAM

WORDS & MUSIC BY H. H. PUGGSLEY

Mod. to

ff

Old Ras-tus Nance in Pa-ris France, A sol-dier from the U. S. A.
In Lon-don too the peo-ple knew. That Ras-tus was a sight-ing man

pp

From Dix-ie too of a dus-ky hugh. He vol-en-tered and went a-way.
They'n al-ways told he was brave and bold. And loved his dear old na-tive land.

Ras-tus was sort-ing so gay While on a for-lo in Pa-ris one day. Why he just Ras-tus was well sa-tis-fied That he was sight-ing for a win-ing side. And for old yelled out loud in a great big crowd, When he met his frend from Mo-bal Bay. li-ber-ty and de-mo-cra-cy. Why old Rast-tus he just fair-ly cried.

I came from good old Al—a—bam. Just to Sight Sor Un-cle Sam To show these rit.

Ger mans whowe am And to teach the Kaiser, that Un cle Sam is wis-er. My bro-ther

rit

he is sight-ing too. For the old red white and blue. From Dix-ie land came sol diers stand to Sight Sor Un cle Sam I came from.

420511