JUL 23 1917
©CLE 413584

WE ARE READY TO FOLLOW OLD GLORY

Words and Music
BY
T. J. QUIGLEY WRITER OF
"Hero of Manilla Bay"

M1646
B

5

Published by THOS. J. QUIGLEY,
821 East 41st Street, - Chicago, Ill.

We Are Ready To Follow Old Glory

Words & Music,
By T. J. QUIGLEY.

Marcia.

Voice.

Com - rades our Coun - try is call - ing, To stand by the Red, White and Blue, Colum - bia the home of the free - man, May peace and pros - per - i - ty remain,

The land of Free - dom's birth, the nob - lest on earth, The land of the brave and the
We say to the world, if the chal - lange is hurled, Our fight - ing will not be in true; While na - tions each oth - er are slay - ing, We've striv - en for vain; For no mat - ter where du - ty may call us, Your brave sons will peace to al - lay, And our rights are ig - nored on the wa - ter, Now nev - er lag, On land or sea a - gainst the en - e - my, We're

Copyright 1917 by T. J. QUIGLEY.

CHORUS.

what do I hear you say. We are read - y to fol - low old Glo - ry, We read - y to fol - low the flag.

know she is al - ways in the right, But right or wrong we are with her strong, the na - tion that nev - er lost a fight; We car - ry no chips on our shoul - ders, We care not to bul - ly or brag, Un - cle Sam can rely on his sol - diers, We are read - y to fol - low the flag. flag.

420250