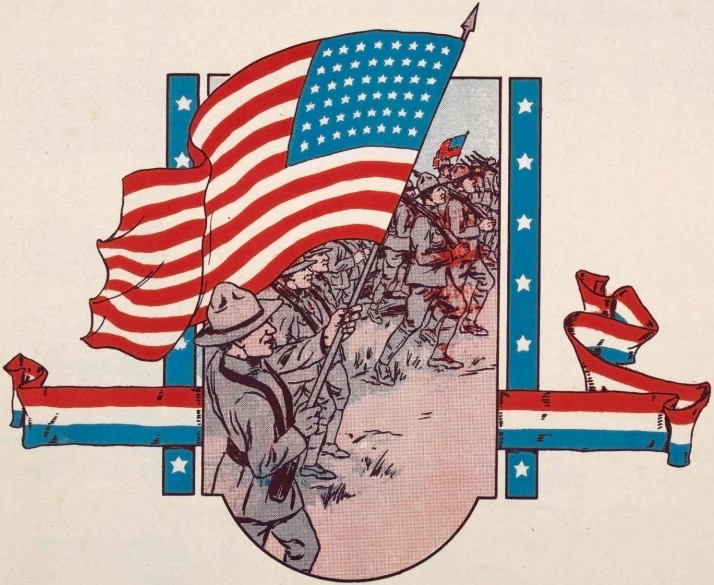
©CLE436832 R
OCT 25 1916

TO OUR COLORS



WORDS BY
Geo. W. Pangburn

MUSIC BY
Wm. C. Radtke

M1666
R

TO OUR COLORS

Words by
GEORGE W. PANGBURN

Music by
WM. C. RADTKE

Moderato March

ff

Oh, say, comrades just look and see, Our flag is still fly - ing
Let's over the top with a pa - tri - ot yell, Fear - ing nothing, mf

in the sun-shine of lib - er - ty. We of the Al - lies are u - ni - ted as one, Fight-ing shoulder not e - ven shot or shell, And show the en - e - my that we will take our stand, By rais - to shoulder till vic - to - ry is won. He - roes of the bat - tle field, pa - tri - ots at home, ing our flag in his home land. Our coun - try, it is for thee we fight,

Let our cour-age not fal - ter, let our loy - al - ty be shown, Un - til peace is proclaimed, and the
And sac - ri - fice our rich - est blood and lives for the right. May God be with us, is our

Copyright 1918 by Geo. W. Pangburn & William C. Radtke
All Musical Rights Reserved

broth - er - hood of man, May dwell in har - mo - ny and safe - ty through-out the land.
earn - est prayer, Un - til vic - to - ry and peace is won over there.

CHORUS

To our col - ors, com - rades, with all our might, And throw our valor and strength in-to the fight,

For the freedom we love, and the home that we cher - ish, That lib - er - ty may live and our na - tion may not per - ish.

Down with mil - i - tarism, it can-not dwell, In the land of Democracy that we love so well, Where the home of the brave, the loy - al and true, Is pro - tect - ed by the Red, White and Blue. Blue.

1. 2. S

D. S.

440525