©CLE436645
NOV -6 1918

Respectfully dedicated to Bugler, George N. Hagar Jr. Battery C. 15th Field Artillery. A. E. F.

Words by George N. Hagar.

"On Wilson Street = Berlin"

Music by Olive C. Reams.

In March time.

tin voci

1. When Kaiser Bill in-vited us. To meet him there in France. He
2. Now Broadway has its lobster shops and London has its strand. Gay
3. No more bock beer or Sauerkraut — No more "wacht on der Rhine. Will little tho't the yankee boys would lead him such a dance. But Pershing wont be Paris has its Boulevards so wonderful and grand. But when the war is have some good old pork and beans, and "Yankee doodle" when we dine. Our Khaki boys will satis-fied un-til he takes a spin. And changes "Unter den Linden" to over we will want to spend our tin. In all the brand new yankee shops, on soon be there, oh! what an awful din. When they run the frightner fritzies. Of Of

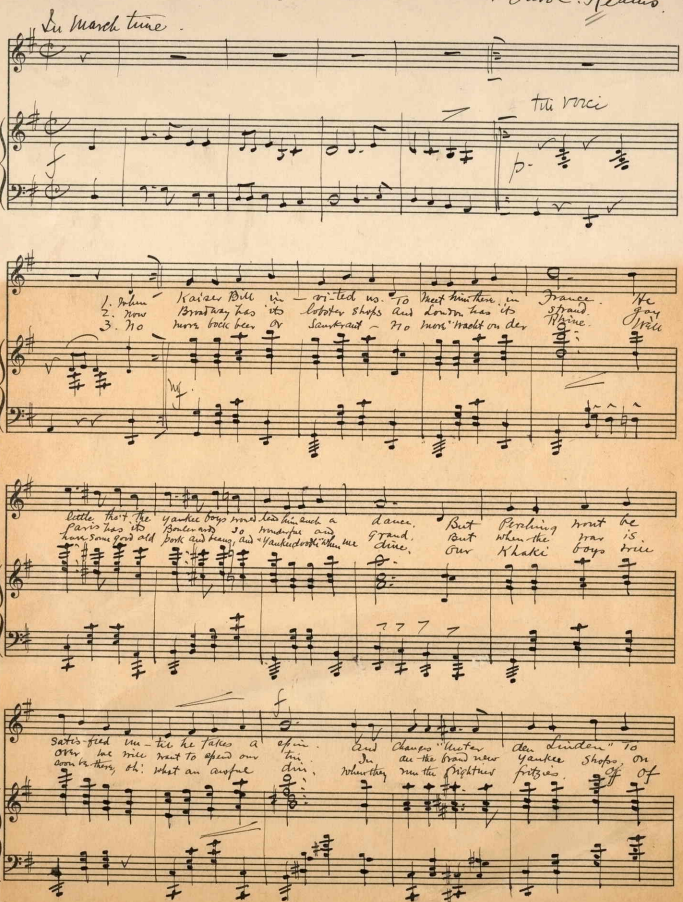
M1646
.R



Chorus

Wilson Street, Ber- lin! On Wilson Street, Berlin. You'll find when we are in! Tony with his barber shop, the laundry of Ah Sin! Abie with his golden balls, Cy Perkins with his grin. Yes!

All the Stores of Yankee Land on Wilson Street. Berlin!

(Shout.)

DITSON BRAND
NUMBER 50 Made in U.S.A.