©DLE 117728 R.
MAR 12 1918

WE'VE HEARD THEM AND WE'RE COMING IN THE NAME OF LIBERTY

OUR BROTHERS 'CROSS THE SEA

WORDS BY WILLIAM DE PAUL

MUSIC BY
NODROG REDNUHT

At stores, ten cents. If your dealer does not carry it, we will mail direct for fifteen cents, or eight for one dollar.

WILLLIAM DE PAUL. P. O. BOX 58 PHILADELPHIA, PA.

M1646
.R

OUR BROTHERS 'CROSS THE SEA

Words by WILLIAM De PAUL

Music by
NODROG REDNUHT

In march time

f ff

f

The brunt of bat - tle they have borne, un - tir - ing - ly and true, The We're slow at pro - vo - ca - tion and we want to know we're right, For
With strong - est hearts we greet the call to bat - tle and to dare, To night is on the fear - less men the day could not sub - due: They jus - tice in the end will win a - gainst the strong - est might; Our win the fight we'll fal - ter not by land or sea or air, And soon shall see the dawn - ing of the morn of vic - to - ry, Of trust is in the God of Hosts, our glo - ry in His name, Who when the fin - al shout is heard, O God! all praise to Thee! Our

f

Copyright 1918 by William De Paul strug - gle won for all man-kind, from men - ace to be free.

nev - er let us know de - feat or prom - ise make in vain.
ea - gle at the sun may gaze, our stars will bright - er be.

They're call - ing us, they're call - ing us, our broth - ers 'cross the sea, We've They're call - ing us, they're call - ing us, our broth - ers 'cross the sea, We've They're call - ing us, they're call - ing us, our broth - ers 'cross the sea, We've heard them and we're com - ing in the name of lib - er - ty. They're ty.

heard them and we're com - ing in the name of lib - er - ty. They're ty.
heard them and we're com - ing in the name of lib - er - ty. They're ty.

ff

42,560