Dedicated to the Salvation Army of America

Sweet Salvation Lassie, May God Bless You!

Words and Music by Agnes Veronica Denison

Music Arranged by Fred Albert Reynolds

Introd. Allo Mosto

f

ff

Voice

mf

Ev-'ry day the pa-pers say, What he-roes brave have done, On One and all they heard the call, To help hu-man-i-ty, 'Neath land and sea, for vic-to-ry, The bat-tles they have won. The garb of blue their hearts beat true, In love and sym-pa-thy. In Red Cross girls' great deeds are sung, In ev-'ry land, In ev-'ry tongue, Let's man-y lands these maids you'll find, Who aid, be-friend and cheer man-kind, Through Copyright 1919 by Agnes V. Denison.

12 Grove St. Rochester, N.Y. All rights reserved.

say a pray'r lest we for-get, A brave sweet lass we all have met.
war-times' sor-row and dis-tress, Their no-ble deeds help'd win suc-cess.

Chorus Tempo di Marcia

Sweet sal-va-tion Las-sie In far off strick-en

p-f.

France, For Free-dom and Old Glo-ry. With the rest you took your chance. We'll read on His-trips

MONARCH MUSIC Westminster

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 10-12 lines.

pa-ge — to gen-er-a-tions new — How you vol-un-teer'd to save, Ev-en though your life you gave, Sal-va-tion Las-sie may God bless rit.

you! — you! —

448659

©CIE440990
JAN -6 1919

Reynolds, F. H.
Sweet Salvation lassie..

M1646
.R

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 10-12 lines.