SEP 29 1917
©CLE412383 R

arranged by Irene Varley

Somewhere in France

Words & Music by Wm. A. Sahly, Jr.

Vivo

Vamp

A MAID WHO'S A MOTHER'S

WAITING IN THE U. S. A. THINKS NOW OF HER SOL-DIER BOY, STANDING IN THE O-PEN DOOR, LONG-ING FOR HER DEAR BOY.

FIGHTING IN FRANCE SO FAR A-WAY, IT MAKES HER HEART BEAT WITH WAITING FOR HIM TO COME BACK FROM THE WAR, TO FILL HER HEART WITH

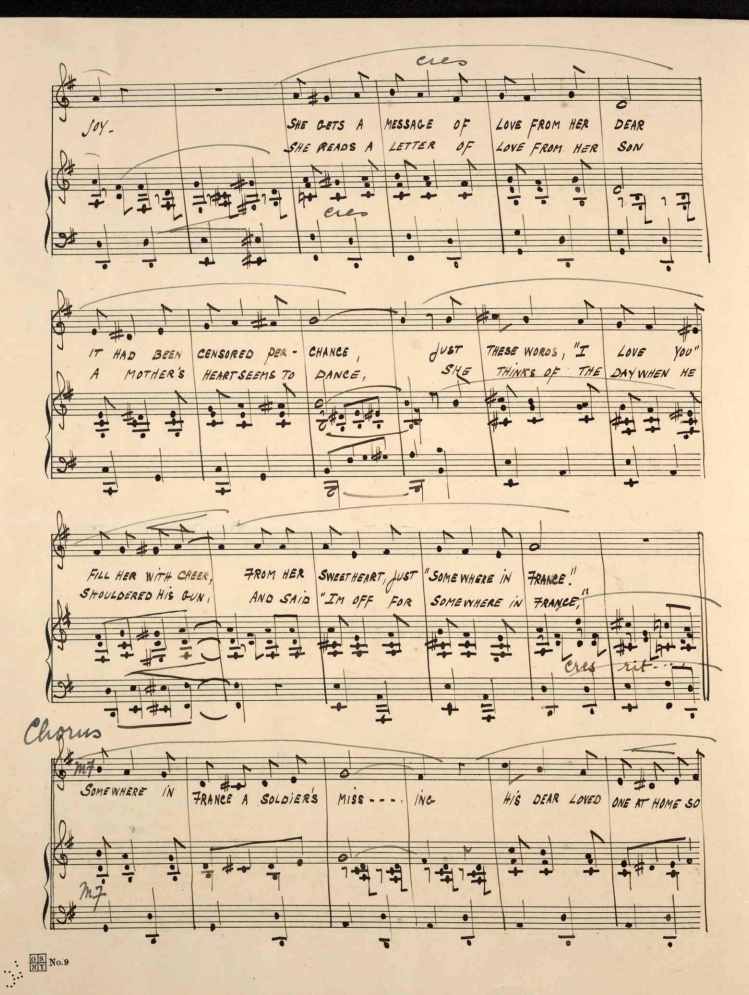
M1646
.S



cres
Joy-
She gets a message of love from her dear
She reads a letter of love from her son
cres
It had been censored per-chance, just these words, "I love you"
A mother's heart seems to dance, she thinks of the day when he Fill her with cheer, from her sweetheart, just "somewhere in France."
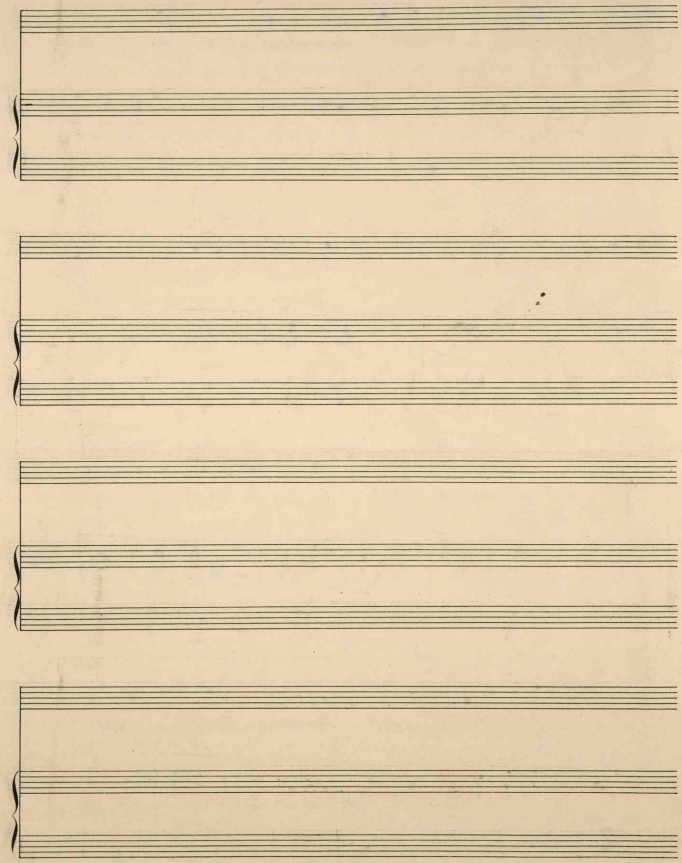
Shouldered his gun, and said "I'm off for somewhere in France."
cres rit.
Chorus
mf
Somewhere in France a soldier's miss---ing his dear loved one at home so
mf

TRUE SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE HE'S SURELY WISH - - - ING TO LOOK IN-

TO HER EYES OF BLUE HIS HEART IS LIGHT HIS EYES ARE SHIN - - ING.

THOUGHTS JUST OF HER SEEM TO EN - TRANCE HER EYES ARE SAD, HER HEART IS PIN -

- ING FOR HER SWEETHEART JUST SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE FRANCE



No.9

415556