JUL 12 1917
H1646
.S

©CLE408596

"SAMMIE"

1- When
2- May the

Sammie left his Mammy, To go across the sea, Like wise a sweetheart Annie, Sister Sue and brothers three; He world some day in chorus Sing songs of Liberty, And together we'll forever, dwell on earth in harmony; Back bade fare well with laughter, 'Tho the tears be dimmed his eyes, I'm going to fight, for Freedom's right, When the Starry Banner flies.

Chorus

to Hades with the seven-headed, May it dwell forever more Cursed human blight, Called "divine right" Of the Old World's troubled shore. Where the 411520

Star ry Ban ner flies, Neath France's troubled skies. Who remembered us so many years ago. We are loved so we're been told, And true love should ne'er grow cold, For Democracy will conquer every foe!

ART BRAND
No. 1

JUL 12 1917