"AN IRISHMAN WAS MADE TO LOVE AND FIGHT"

Words by
J. W. Bratton --

Music by
Jos. H. Santly.

JUL 11 1918

Down in Hogan's alley - lived Widow Kate O'Malley

And right next door was Shultz's butcher store
Sure, the widow used to deal there,
Buy her corned beef - pork and veal there,
And she and Shultz would argue 'bout the war
But Shultz got in wrong Tuesday night
He said the Irish wouldn't fight
Kate's Irish blood began to boil, as proudly she replied.

CHORUS.

Sure me youngest boy enlisted in the Navy
And his brother Danny went with the Marines
You know little Mike O'Hare, he's a fightin' in the air
The Sixty-Ninth took two lads from McLeans,
Look, there's a service flag a flyin' from McCarty's -
Tim O'Briens boy he leaves for France tonight
And there's my old man - God bless him do -
He volunteered in 'sixty - two
An Irishman was made to love and fight.

Shultz just pay attention and pardon if I mention
The Irish always was a fightin' race
Patrick Henry was a grand man,
Sherman fought to beat the band man
And Kitchener to his race brought no disgrace
Now Shultz just paste this in your hat
That ev'ry Michael - Tim and Pat
Who loves the Wearin' of the Green
Will fight for Uncle Sam.

- 2 - CHORUS.

Sure for bravery Tim Flynn's been made a Captain,
And me daughter's with the Red Cross over there
Have you heard that Tommy Breen, sunk a great big submarine
There's medals on the chest of Paddy Clare
Young Father Reilly he's a Chaplain in the army
Barney Shea he's on his way across alright
Sure an Irish soldier on a crutch - can lick a dozen dirty Dutch
An Irishman was made to love and Fight.
