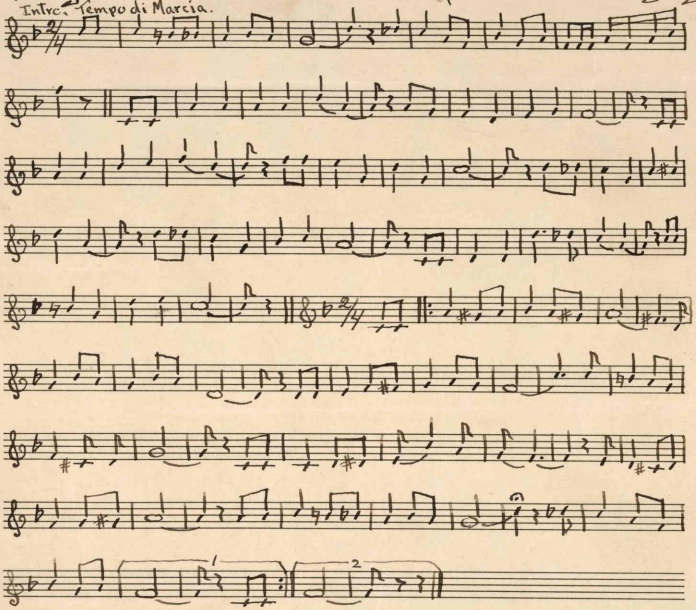
"You" And The Red, White And Blue

Music by Harry Norton

Words by Harry Raymond.

AUG -7 1918 ©CLE429418c

Intro. Tempo di Marcia.



M1646
.N

AUG -7 1918

YOU-AND THE RED WHITE AND BLUE.

Words by Harry Raymond. Music by Harry Nolton.

To a transport in the harbor
Went a soldier and his gal,
She was sighing at his leaving,
She'd be lonely for her pal.
Don't forget to write me, Dearie,
Said the hero cheerily,
And the maiden softly whispered,
"Will you sometimes think of me?"

CHORUS.

While the star spangled banner is waving
Her colors of red, white and blue,
In a strange land far over the ocean,
My thoughts will be, Sweetheart, of you,
While the Sammies are fighting for freedom,
And pushing the victory through,
All the love in my heart will be given
To you and the red, white and blue.

In the Red Cross she enlisted,
With a corps of ambulance,
Sailed to aid the loyal heroes,
On the stricken fields of France.
There behind the line of battle,
Fell her brave pal's aeroplane,
But the wounded " Ace" felt cheerie
When the nurse told why she came.

436/31