When The Boys Come Sailing, Sailing Home

Marcia

Voice

There's a dear old mother in a dear old home
In the days of old when our heroes bold Won

Long-ing for the day of joy..... When the war is ov-er and the bat-tles our bat-tles in days gone bye..... They are proud to day of all our Yankee won she'll be proud of her sol dier- boy..... All the boys will meet them, the girls will lads that went ov- er to do or die There'll be steam-boats blowing their color greet them.. When the land in this U. S. G..... They'll be welcome once more on their show-ing all our colors of liber- ty They will march as of yore, Met by own native shore Crowned with vic-to- ry.....

Wilson on shore, Man of liber- ty....

Chorus

And when the boys come sail-ing sail-ing home, Like war-riors of old they'll stand... And when you hear those bands play Yan kee Doodle and way down in Dixie land... There will be a grand o- va-tion all over this nation, to greet the boys with heart and hand Then we'll give three cheers For our grand old flag... And the heroes of 1mo

Yan-kee land And when the land.....
