MAR 12 1919 ©JE445046 JR

A Song From The Nation's Heart

Words and music by Elise Vardow Romá

Fast & spirited

Welcome home, oh,

ff welcome home A thousand times and more! Our brave and true have fought it through. Hur-rah! The war is o'er. They come in all their ff

ff

M1646
.R
Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 10–12 lines.

glory Ev'ry one a hero now. Our own dear boys with triumph's light Upon each gallant brow. 2nd We'll not forget your brothers, boys, That Slower - with expression

p

rest beyond the sea, Who gave their lives be- fore had dawned The day of Vic-to- ry, For the mem'ry of each soldier lad That bravely did his part, Is set with yours, as a jewel rare With- in the Na-tion's heart Welcome, then, oh fast

ff ff mp f welcome home, A thousand times and more! We cry and cheer- our boys are here They're home again from war. So let us shout our

f f

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 10 – 12 lines.

welcome As the bells sing out for joy. While proudly wave the Stars and Stripes To greet each Soldier Boy.

450001