JUN -1 1918
©CLE425269

DONT FORGET US YANKEELAND

MARCHING SONG

---

Words & Music

by

Francis H. Robertson

---

Published by

The Eureka Music Printing Press

350-52 West 38th Street

New York City

M1646
.R

DONT FORGET US YANKEELAND.

Words & Music by
Francis H. Robertson

Allegro Mod^to

The stars and the stripes are a-gleam-ing and a stream-ing in the air,
The guns at the front are a-blow-ing and a throw-ing things a-bout

The boys in the camps are a-dream-ing of days "ov-er there".
The boys in the trench-es are glow-ing, "For Viz-t'ry!" they shout.

The old Yank-ee bu-gles a-scream-ing, ev-er seam-ing to de-clare
And straight thro' the lines they are go-ing, ev-er know-ing in the fout.

That we are in to stick and win And do a pro-per share.
They'll get old Fritz right where he sits And knock him down and out.

Copyright, 1918, by Francis H. Robertson, New York City.

— But be- ware, — and pre- pare — For the big push "Ov- er there."
— But be- ware, — and pre- pare — For the big push "Ov- er there."

Cho:

Don't for- get us Yankee-land — We go to fight for you — car- ry-ing the good, old flag, the red and white and blue, Zip! Zip! We bat- tle on for Lib- er- ty —

— And pray that war may cease — A mighty throng, A mil- lion strong, will go a- long —

— to conquer wrong — and bring us last- ing peace. — peace. —

EUREKA PRESS, N.Y.

452200