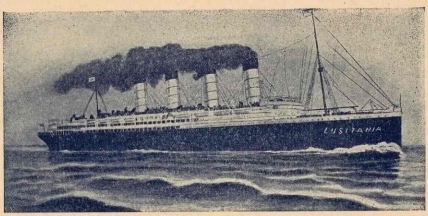
JUN 27 1917
©ILE408297

REMEMBER THE LUSITANIA

SONG



WORDS and MUSIC

By

JESS SECHRIST

Published by SANPAN MUSIC CO.
HARRISBURG, PA.

A 1646
.S

Remember the Lusitania

by Jess Sechrist

Mod^to Intro.

mf

Voice

A – mer – i – ca once more is in bat – tle ar – ray, fly – ing her bat – tle flags on A -- mer – i – ca once more is in bat – tle ar – ray, fly – ing her same old bat – tle –

high — Pre-par-ing to fight for lib-er-ty; may its' ban-ners for-ev-er fly — The – flags — Striving to free the en-tir-e world from grasping Prussian au-to-crats — Lib-stars and stripes must do well their park, — in crushing this wild war Lord — Who

-er-ty's foundi-tion is as – sailed, — by a cloud a-cross the sea — So

Copyright 1917 by Sanpan Music Co.

vi-o-lates all treaties ev'ry rule of war, and re-spects not in-ter-na-tion-al law.
we must do well our part, our work is cut out, it is in the cause of hu-man-i-ty.

Chorus

Re-member the Lus-i-ta-ni-a, the gallant queen of the sea Re member the souls she carried good Ameri-

f

-cans just as you and me Re-member the Lus-i-ta-ni-a, with those helpless women & chil-dren aboard. Who went defenseless to the mas-sa-cre, and saw their country nev-er-more.

409824