f

(Not too fast)

The reg-i-ments are read-y ev-'ry one, Wait-ing for the day to sail.
For Lib-er-ty is call-ing to the fray: Most ev-'ry moth-er's son a-way;

mf

Camp Jack-son's loy-al boys, Are going to make a noise Old Glo-ry was nev-er known to fail. And when they sail a-We'll fight with all our might, We've got to win the fight, For our boys are going to show the way. We'll miss you all the way,

You'll hear them soft-ly say:
while; Now friends cheer up and smile:

CHORUS

So long Camp Jack- son, So long folks at home, Good - bye dear old

p -f

Pals; We're go - ing ov- er to fight the foe, And to face the shot and shell Now don't be griev-ing 'cause we're leav - ing For the bat - tle ov - er there, The Kai-ser will be wis- er when we march in- to Berlin, Then you'll know we've done our share. share.
