©CLE 438113
NOV 21 1918

When "Sammie" Comes Marching Home!

Words & music by Mrs. Albert M. Stein.

~~Bel~~

Tempo di Marcia.

Voice

Piano

1. There's a
2. But

great day com-ing soon When our hearts will leap with joy, There's an-oth-er pic-ture that we must paint with this, When, 'tis the Moth-ers Sis-ters Sweet hearts see a-gain their Sol-dier boy, And "Old fa-ces that we look for and that we will sure-ly miss, There's the

M1646
.S

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS
Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 32-10 lines.

Glor-y will be fly-ing and mu-sic rend the air, as we dear old gray haired Mo-ther who's face is sad with care, The gaze up-on the fa-ces of our boys from "o-ver there", For they oth-er boys come home but he's lies "o-ver there", There's the fought for home and free-dom, and the vic-try will be theirs, Can't you Sis-ter and the Sweet heart who are look-ing oh so sad, and The see them march-ing home-ward, from the bat-tles fire and glares, and we'll ba-by and it's Mo-ther who will miss their Sol-dier "Dad", But they'll hug them and we'll kiss them and we'll clasp them to our heart, and we'll nev-er be for-gott-en, far and wide where we may roam, For they

Rit.

Rit.

pray to God in Heaven that no more we'll have to part:
died like he-roes long be-fore Our Sammie came march-ing home:

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 32–10 lines.

Chorus. (Lively)

When Sam-my comes march-ing home again we'll nev-er keep his pace, The Kai-ser won't be in Heav-en but be in the oth-er place, and oh! you Hun you son-of-a-gun you'll still be on the run, From

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 32-10 lines.

ndiana