1. Ev'-ry sol - dier loves the girl he leaves be-hind him, He will
2. Ev'-ry U. S. girl should have a sol-dier sweet-heart And for p

think of her a- midst the can - non's roar, If she'll write him cheer-y let-ters to re-him each girl should do — her bit, For the boys are going a-way - soon they'll mind him Of the girl that he is fight - ing be right in the fray And each girl will have to fill his for. Here's your chance to do your pat-ri-ot-ic du-ty And to kit. Don't for-get it's up to you to make him hap-py And it's make your coun-try proud of you, So that Un-cle Sam will know each Yan-kee up to you to make his bur-den light So get bus-y girls at knit-ting or So Beau-ty Has done her bit for the Red, White and Blue. Then some-thing It's for you that he is going a-way to fight. Then when they march a-way You'll hear each sol-dier say; — when they march a-way You'll hear each sol-dier say; —

CHORUS - Marcia.

We're go-ing o-ver on a Ger-man boat And we won't come mf-f back till we get the Kai-ser's goat So girls do your share while we're o-ver there And we'll see that you get your vote - - - -

Here's to the girls — of the U. S. A. - Cheer up — girls, we'll soon come back to stay. And when we do we're going to mar-ry you so work for your sol - dier boy.
