Our Country Is Calling

Words and Music by Bertha Emily Strandberg

Oh! Our country now is calling For to rise and do our best. God will Let our boys have all the kindness - When our boys in blue are fighting - bless the stars of freedom And to all the world send rest. From the red-wrapped frays and battles - From the smoky nights and days From the Monsters troubling waters - Let us all take part and say -

Refrain

"Oh! The glory of our country, we'll defend her with our life - For it is the land of fathers - Who were noble in the strife. And it is a worthy nation, Now, we'll try to keep it so - And for ever and for ever Shall our star-spangled banner glow - And for ever and for ever Shall our star spangled banner glow.
