DEC 12 1918

When The Band Plays Yankee Doodle Doo.

Words and Music by

W. L. Strickland

5

Published by
H. C. WEASNER & CO.,
BUFFALO, N.Y.

©QLE437995

When The Band Plays Yankee Doodle Doo

Words & Music by
W. L. STRICKLAND

Tempo di Marcia

ff sf

VOICE

mp

Stand up and don't be bought, put forth an honest thought, For the right a-gainst the wrong and it's time that they be-
Our Un-cle Sam is right, for him we all will fight, He's for free-dom of the sea, when the world will all be gan, To have free-dom in your fath-er land, For the Kai-ser don't you see; he is free And Old Glo-ry will wave o'er land and sea For Wil-son is the man Wood-row robbing German-y, He has sold him-self to the dev-il for a crown, But re-mem-ber e'er is for Un-cle Sam, He will stand for world's de-moc-ra-cy sub-lime, For the right a-gainst the long, all na-tions we will free And the Stars and Stripes will wave o'er land and sea.

mp

Copyright 1918 by W. L. Strickland, Buffalo, N. Y.

wrong, for the weak a-gainst the strong, For the hand that rocks the cra-dle rules the world.

CHORUS

Hur-rah hur-rah for Un-cle Sam-my And the boys of the Red, White and Blue, We will sink the submarines and Bil-ly Kaiser dreams while the band plays Yankee Doodle Doo three cheers for the Red, White and Blue, And the arm-y and na-vy so true, You can get the boys to-geth-er in most an-y kind of weath-er, When the band plays Yan-kee Doo-dle Doo.

447616