©CLE448769

APR 26 1919

The Soldier's Last Dream

SONG

WORDS AND MUSIC BY

—BY—

H. STRUEBING

PUBLISHED BY ARION MUSIC CO.,
MILWAUKEE, WIS.

M1646
.S c.2

THE SOLDIER'S LAST DREAM

Words and Music by
H. STRUEBING

Andante

rit.

By the glow of a dy - ing camp - fire,— In the dusk of a fad - ing
But the rays of a dawn - ing morn - ing,— Find him dy - ing in "No Man's day,— There's a lone - ly heart a - yearn - ing,— For his Land,"— By his side lies dear Old Glo - ry,— Which he Copyright 1919 by Arion Music Co., Milwaukee, Wis.

loved one far a - way. Tho' the shot and shell are guard - ed with man - ly hand. And the dis - tant roar of scream - ing like de - mons thru the air, Un - daunt - ed he is can - non pro - claim, "We've won the day," And he clos - es his eyes, a - dream - ing Of his sweet - heart, young and fair.

dream - ing Of his loved one, far a - way.

rit.

a tempo

rit.

D. S. al Fine

457996