©CLE 437165
NOV 20 1918

Since · Liberty · Rules · the · World ·

words & music by Z. A. TABBERT.

Intro-

mf

All bat-tles are ov-er and peace does pre-vail, And the World it is hap-py to-day- For Vic-t'ry and

M1646

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 10-12 lines.

Free-dom has come with-out fail, And the sun-shine is with us to stay; A feel-ing that sure-ly will make us rejoice, With our hearts just as glad as can be, So there's hap-pi-ness ring —— ing from ev-ery voice, And the clouds sil-ver

Chorus - ff

lin-ing we see — Since Lib-er-ty rules the World; Since Lib-er-ty rules the World,

We bask in the sun-shine of Free — dom, And thank ev-ery star in the King — dom, Since Lib-er-ty

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 10-12 lines.

(2nd. Verse)

Have faith in this Freedom, it's come to us all,
So forget all your troubles and smile;
Just think of the happiness, then you will call Your patiently waiting, worth while;
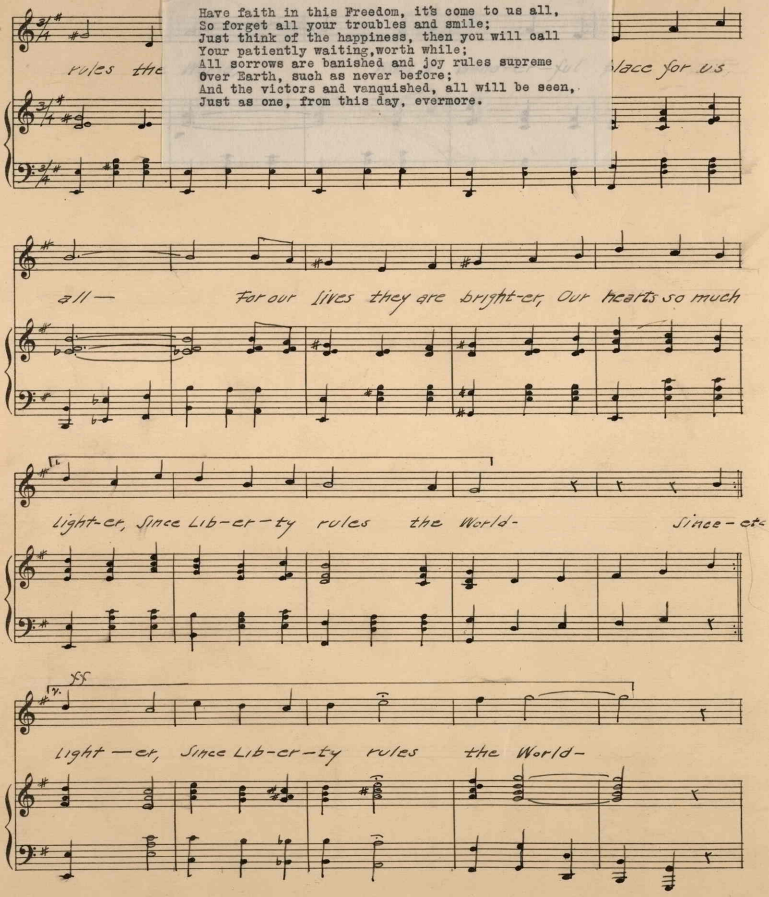
All sorrows are banished and joy rules supreme
Over Earth, such as never before;
And the victors and vanquished, all will be seen,
Just as one, from this day, evermore.



445346

rules the World, What a wond-er-ful place for us all — For our lives they are bright-er, Our hearts so much light-er, Since Lib-er-ty rules the World- Since-et-38

light — er, Since Lib-er-ty rules the World-