DEC 10 1918
©CLE440391
R

Men of America

(We're Mighty Proud Of You)

WORDS BY

Joseph Gorman

MUSIC BY

Mary Taylor

PUBLISHED BY GORMAN & TAYLOR
Providence, R. I.

Men Of America.

(We're Mighty Proud Of You.)

Words by JOSEPH GORMAN.

Music by MARY TAYLOR.

Introd.

Piano

Voice.

The young men of this coun - try are now scat-tered o'er the earth. And some of them are Your peo - ple came from Eng-land or most like - ly it was France Or was it from the

in the Land that gave their fa-thers birth and nob - ly they are prov - ing these brave sol-diers true and auld sod or from I - ta - ly per-chance or was it lit - tle Bel-gium where your moth-er first saw bold That they pos-ses the cour - age of those gal - lant men of old They en-tered in the light Where e'er it was there is no doubt you know just how to fight Is Can - a - da your con-flict when most need - ed there's no doubt And they showed the world their val - ue when they home-land or can Bon - nie Scot-land claim To be the coun - try of your birth and put the Huns to route Though ma - ny men have fal - len in the thick - est of the where you got your name It mat - ters not from whence you came this fact re-mains you fray Their names will live for - ev - er in the good old U. S. A.

Copyright MCMXVIII by Gorman & Taylor, Providence, R.I.

see You're ev - 'ry one true Yan - kees and you'll make the whole world free.
Chorus. slowly.
Men of A - mer - i - ca were might - y proud of you You're a cred - it to your coun - try and the old Red, White and Blue, You land - ed just in time boys to help our al - lies through May God bless you all A - mer - i - cans for we are might - y proud of you.

446917