

shaving—used in camp toilets by General Washington and Colonel Lewis; commission of Colonel Zachary Lewis in troops for French and Indian War.

Silhouette of Dr. Richmond Lewis; book of extracts of Mrs. Governor Wood, aunt of Mrs. E. T. Lewis, of Brecknock; letters of Dr. James M. Scott; will of Zachary Lewis II; will of Zachary Lewis III; book of extracts of Mrs. J. M. Scott; book of extracts of Huldah Lewis; John M. Daniel's latch key; Examiner; S. T. Lewis's notes on history; book of extracts; geographical notes of some of the family.

Tabular views of language, a beautiful study in philology, by John Lewis, of Llangollen; analytical outlines, by John Lewis.

Sarah Lewis' book of extracts, English, French and Italian; poems, Miss Ann Boggs and others; Brecknock table furniture; family Bible of Dr. Richmond Lewis; book of extracts, French and English, apparently Mrs. Huldah Holladay's.

Letter to Mr. Jefferson from Waller Holladay; letter to Mr. Waller Holladay from Mr. Thomas Ritchie; letter to General Littlepage from Mr. Carmichael, Madrid; letter (copy) of General Buxhoeoden, of Warsaw, to General Littlepage; letter (copy) of General Littlepage to the Abbe Thigiotti; letter of General Littlepage to General Buxhoeoden; notice of General Littlepage by some unknown person; controversy of General Littlepage with the Court of Vienna; album of poetry, Huldah Lewis; Mrs. Frances Greenhow's fan; Mrs. Frances Greenhow's trunk; first volume of Revised Code of Virginia, 1814.

Scrap of plantation cloth woven in the ante-emancipation days for the negroes; little souvenir booklet given by