Words by J.V. Blanchet

NOV 20 1917

Where? There! Somewhere in France!

Music by George Tompkins

©CLE411882

(March rythm)

1. 'Cross the blue — our gallant friends are battling — 'Gainst the
2. In the fields of France our guns are booming — Crashing might of Kaiser Will — In Yan-Kee-land our arms are through the Hun-nish line — And Yan-Kee freedom now is rattling — And he'll have to foot the bill — Cheerful looming — E-ven there be-yond the Rhine — Let us

Mason
M1646.1
.T

strength we bring to French and Tommy. — Freemen all 'gainst slaves of smile and cheer our armies glorious — As they sail — a- cross the

Hun. — To lick the madcap's ar- my. — And see the foam. — And "stick" with thrill vic- torious — Till Sam- mies

R.

Chorus.

job's well done. —
bring peace home. —

Dont you hear the tramp of f.

feet. — Measured tramping proudly marching up the street. — Files are blowing- Drums are rolling- Flags un- furling- Sammies going- Where!- There!- Somewhere in France- We will lead the allied cause-Shoot a pill in Kaiser Bill and clip his paws- For fz.

once on the spot- we'll make it hot- Over the top and clean out the lot-

(Shouting)

1.

2.

Where! There!!! Somewhere in France.- Don't you France (yeow)

419593