©CLE433347 R ✓
OCT 24 1918

SONG

GOOD BYE, SWEETHEART, GOOD BYE!

Words by J. W. Betscher

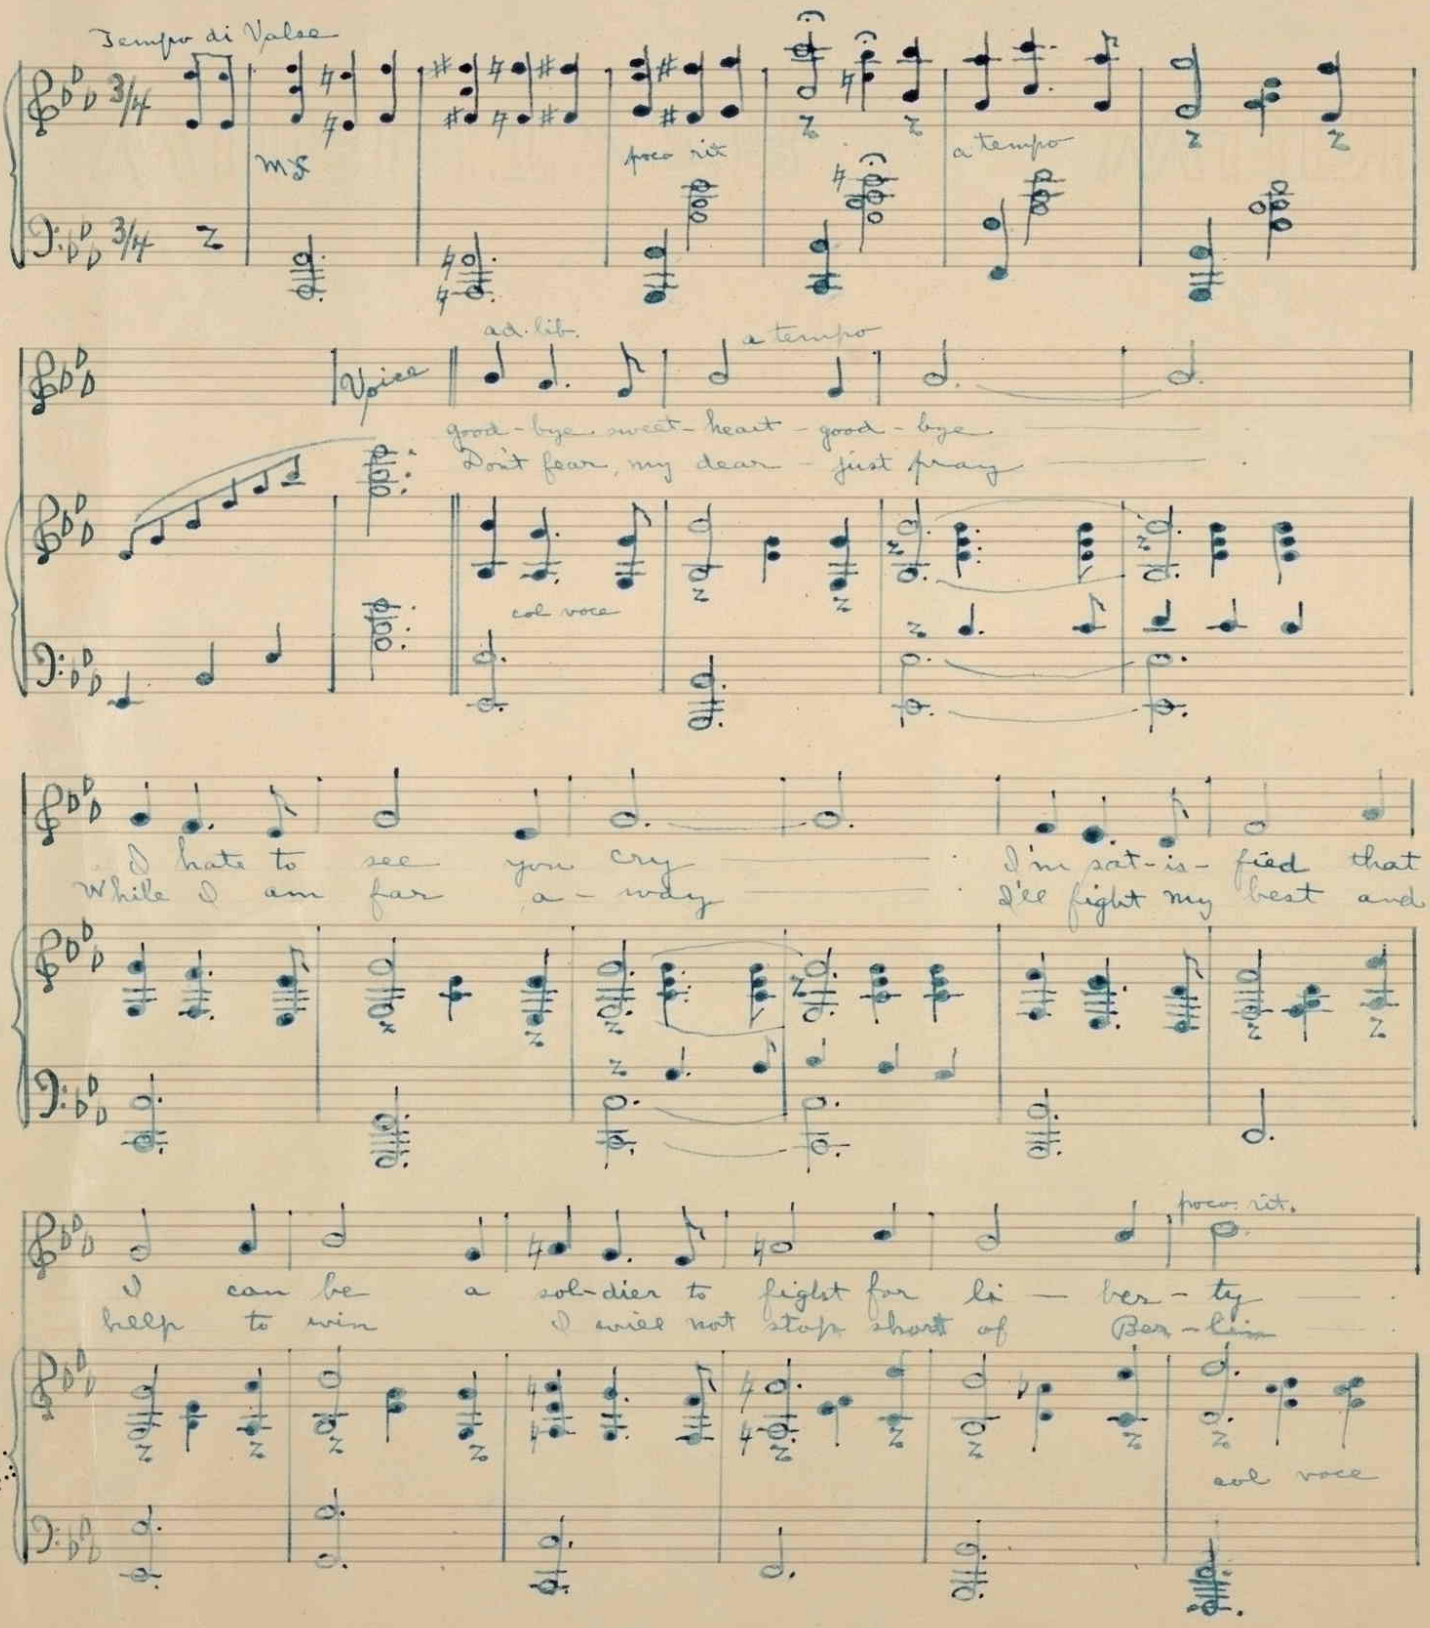
Music by R. E. Neith

M1646
.V

Words by J. W. Betacher

GOODBYE, SWEETHEART, GOODBYE!

Music by R. E. Veith



a tempo

Don't grieve, my dear for me — While I'm a-cross the I'll al-ways think of you — Sweet-heart I love so

a tempo

sea — When it's all over-er there I'll come back to you dear true — I'll sail from France some-day Back to our U. S. A.

Refrain.

Good-bye sweet-heart good-bye — good-bye sweet-heart good There I'll find home-fires and you —

rit. a tempo

bye — Sweet-heart now please don't cry —

Write me a let-ter now and then, I don't care whether it's

rit. a tempo

pen-cil or pen. This war for us is play. We'll col voce a tempo soon put that Kaiser a-way. From Ber-lin I will write with the Huns still in flight. So, good-bye, sweet-heart, good-bye.