SEP 10 1918
©CLE 432552

You Can See the Kaiser's Finish
U.S. Army Camp and War Song

Words and Music by Returned Veteran 628259. Pte Ed Mears 47th Battalion B.C.
Canadian Expeditionary Force

Marjorie
Con Spirito forte

When the Kai ser and his famil ly from dread dev ils Is land Se forte Then may his poor misguided to ol th e ex e cra ted Hu When Tom my and the Poi lu and the Bas sa lier ie t
When at last this dreadful war is o ver and the crim in als a wa

Pia Sombre with awe con funebre cres e Piano..... The aw ful wreck and ru in he has made of her man y n re men ber that he always had a place right in the Su po with aid from our brave Sam my's make the Hun ish vis ion Bl ke ad vice from Un cle Sam my they most eer tain ly will Ta for Con spirito

y un num bered Slaugh tered I n o cents their blood to Heaven must er n un til his awful Crimes a gainst the worlds Hu man it t ue, we will cheer ful ly give up our all, and our sup reme sac ri fi ke, not to mon key with the Buzz saw widely known as Lib er t

Hi for Con Amour for con spirito y the Fiend can not a tone his crimes on earth or sea or Sh y y de barred him from the place he held on land, in sky or se a ce, to keep the Hun up on the run until he pays the pri ce y, we'l beat them to a Fraz zle for good old Dem o cra c y.

M1679

Chorus's

fortissimo con comerado Giocoso

I tramp, tramp, tramp the boys are mar-ching to Ber-lin and right thro' German-y we've the grit to beat the Hun, "see" we've got him on the run, back to where he's been well done in Slav-er-y loving spunk to win the fights for our liberty and rights and to fly the stars and stripes Eternal-l-y loving

II tramp

III forte con amour

III f. Con Amour cres cres cres forte hearts at home and free-dom steel our nerves to vic-tor-y we've a

" " " " how we dear-ly long for The-e, but we'l cres fortissimo after II Chorus ff yell

~~certain sort of punch~~ certain sort of punch when we meet that junker bunch we'l land our knockout punch on German-y Democra

see the fight right thro, dear old flag red white & blue, we'l carry you right thro' to victor-y e-y Liber-t-y victor-y

Finis

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 10-12 lines.

459664